NEARING COMPLETION Pavement construction of Federal Aid Road 151 between Granite City and Venice is nearly complete. This view, looking south from the end of Niedringhaus Avenue on Tuesday, shows approaches to the Chicago Avenue overpass which will carry Route 151 traffic over the railroad tracks near the Granite City Air installation. The new highway at Venice is connected with the new Broadway underpass by which traffic is diverted from old

Broadway and long traffic tieups by trains. Median construction, installation of guardrails and lighting remain before the highway will be ready for traffic. (Press-Record Photo)

May close 162 during repair of crossing

A plan to improve the railroad crossings on Highway 162 at 23rd Street in Granite City has been proposed by the state, but the crossing will have to be closed for approximately two weeks, according to a notice received by Mayor Paul Schuler.

The Illinois Department of Transportation has asked the city to approve such a crossing shutdown, with a suggestion that all traffic be detoured over 23rd Street to Nameoki Road, on Nameoki Road to Ponton Road and down Ponton to Route 111. H. W. Munro, district highway engineer at Fairview Heights, told Mayor Schuler that an agreement has been reached between the Illinois Department of Transportation, the Illinois Commerce Commission and the railroad that the crossing improvements should be made.

His letter said: "The state of Illinois, acting through its Department of Transportation, in cooperation with the Illinois Commerce Commission and the Alton and Southern Railway, the Illinois Terminal Railroad, and the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, proposes to improve the crossings of the railroad tracks across Illinois Route 162 south of Granite City. In order to accomplish these improvements, it will be necessary to close Illinois Route 162 for a period of approximately two weeks during construction of the improved crossings."

A condition necessary for closing Illinois Route 162 is the selection of a suitable detour for vehicular traffic. Such a detour is proposed via Illinois Route 203, Ponton Road and Illinois Route 111.

"The detour would be in effect approximately two weeks, anticipated to be the last two weeks in October 1976."

"It is proposed to have the improvements to the crossings on all four railroad tracks done during this two-week period."

"These improvements will be of benefit to the motorists who live and work in the city of Granite City."

"Since the portion of Ponton Road between Illinois Route 203 (Nameoki Road) and Maryville Road between Illinois Route 203 (Nameoki Road) and Maryville Road is maintained by the city, we are hereby requesting approval from the city for use of Ponton Road as part of the detour, with assurance that the city will not hold the state responsible for any damage or maintenance to Ponton Road due to its use as a detour."

Such detour might add to traffic problems in the Nameoki area since outgoing and incoming traffic ordinarily using Highway 162 would be rerouted through here.

There was no discussion of the letter at Tuesday night's City Council session.

On and off the record Full grand jury report

The full text of the Madison County grand jury report on juvenile crime is presented today on Page 40, along with an editorial, "Youths being released almost automatically regardless of the steadily escalating severity of their criminal actions."

The outgoing grand jury has recommended that the current panel continue its investigation of policies and actions of the Juvenile Division of the Illinois Department of Corrections.

Bicentennial coins — 'history in your hand'

Quad-Cityans and other Americans have history to spend, but apparently they are saving it instead.

The U.S. Mint reports citizens are acquiring circulating versions of the nation's new Bicentennial coins at record rates.

"The popularity of the coins is a tribute to the nation," in the opinion of Mrs. Mary Brooks, an Idaho rancher who is director of the mint. "It confirms that Americans have great pride in their country and its heritage." She championed the concept of new coinage as the most effective way "to place history in the hands of all Americans."

Congress agreed. It directed minting of both circulating and non-circulating versions to provide citizens with official commemoratives of the country's 200th birthday.

The new quarter, half dollar and dollar coins are writing history while honoring it. They were designed "by the people" in nationwide competition and became the first circulating coins ever changed to celebrate an anniversary of America's independence.

The newly designed coins "represent one of the most important coinage changes to occur since the founding of our government," Mrs. Brooks believes.

The U.S. Mint reports that orders for circulating versions of the coins far exceed demand for their predecessors during comparable periods ending last year.

It announced that proof and uncirculated sets of the three coins, which contain 40 per cent silver, are being ordered around the world from Austria to Japan. A bank in Taiwan recently ordered 250,000 such sets with a check to the mint for $1,750,000.

But Americans apparently are even collecting the circulating versions without silver. As of June 30, the mint had distributed for general circulation:

—354 million Colonial Drummer quarters since August 1975, a 140 per cent increase over the previous quarter during a like period.

—345 million Independence Hall half dollars since July 1975, a 70 per cent rise.

—143 million Liberty Bell with moon dollars since October 1975, a 260 per cent increase.

The figures are based on distributions to Federal Reserve Banks throughout the nation which in turn reflect commercial banking and thus public demand for the coins.

Of the 45 million special 40 per cent silver uncirculated and proof coins minted under the Congressional directive, half have already been purchased at home and abroad.

Mint officials believe Americans and citizens of other nations are purchasing the special sets as "treasures for today and heirlooms for tomorrow."

To increase availability of the special coins, they are being marketed through banks and other financial institutions across the country. They may also be purchased directly from the U.S. Mint in San Francisco. Mint officials attribute the demand for the coins to their commemorative value and their relatively limited numbers.

Vote to double compensation tax

The U.S. Senate yesterday voted 70-0 to double the unemployment compensation tax on employers and to extend jobless benefits to all state and local government workers. The action would ban drawing both a retirement check and full unemployment pay. The bill goes to a conference with the House, which passed a different version.

Weather outlook for this region

A little warmer this afternoon with high in mid-70s. Clear tonight. Low in the low 50s.

Hospital improvements

Ways of maintaining and expanding services to help meet new and continuing community needs were reviewed as St. Elizabeth Hospital governing bodies reorganized for the year on Tuesday.

Sister Isidore Lennon, R.S.M., vice-chairman of the governing board, was elected as the new chairman, succeeding C. E. Townsend, former Press-Record editor and publisher. She is a past administrator of St. John's Mercy Hospital.

New vice-chairman is Leo H. Konzen, of the Lueders, Robertson and Konzen law firm.

M. B. Milonski, American Steel Foundries works manager, is the new secretary, succeeding Sister Mary Ann, C.D.P.

New members of the board besides Milonski are Sister Barbara Horenkamp, of the faculty of St. Mary-St. Mark's School here, and Sister M. Dorothy Kiel, director of education of the Sisters of Divine Providence at Mount Providence, Normandy, Mo.

The local community hospital is owned by the Sisters of Divine Providence. The board chairmanship rotates between lay persons and members of religious orders.

The size and scope of the hospital and its modern and sophisticated equipment and facilities are proving helpful in recruiting additional members of the medical and nursing staffs, it was noted.

Goals in the coming year will include attracting general-practice physicians and possibly expanding facilities in several departments.

Some moving of offices and departments is taking place as the hospital utilizes newly remodeled portions of the wing nearest Madison Avenue.

Administrative officers elected by the board Tuesday for the 1976-77 year are Sister Mary Thomas, C.D.P., hospital president; Ted Eilerman, executive vice-president; and Paul Raczewicz, vice-president.

At a reorganization of the medical staff for the new year Tuesday, Dr. Robert Blankenship was chosen as president. Dr. Donald C. Schnellmann as president-elect and Dr. Felicia D. Koch as secretary-treasurer.

Four advisory committees reporting to the board and headed by members of the governing board assist in the fields of finance, planning, government relations and community relations.

The committees held a joint quarterly discussion yesterday, with Leo Konzen presiding in the absence of Sister Isidore Lennon. Those submitting reports included C. E. Blankenship, B. J. Davis and Executive Vice-President Eilerman.

It was noted that a speakers' bureau has been established and that local organizations desiring programs related to St. Elizabeth Hospital are being encouraged to contact Mrs. Jimmy Tuetken of the Public Relations Department.

Congestion worries city

By HARRY BARNES Press-Record Staff Writer

Beet by mounting traffic problems in the Nameoki shopping area, Granite City aldermen voted Tuesday night to eliminate left turns from the Bellemore Shopping Center into Johnson Road and discussed the possibility of lifting a ban placed a week ago on right turns on a red light from Nameoki Road into Johnson Road.

Several aldermen admitted that traffic congestion in the shopping area and around Granite City High School South and Coolidge Junior High School "has become a real mess." Alderman Emerald Dawes of the Seventh Ward commented that "I don't know what we're going to do about it."

The council approved by a 10 to 2 vote a motion by Alderman Warren Decatur of the Fourth Ward that the city attorney bring in an ordinance prohibiting left turns from the parking lot behind the Bellemore Shopping Center into Johnson Road as a means of expediting the movement of cars from the shopping center.

Merchants in the Bellemore area have made repeated requests for electric traffic signals on Nameoki Road at Jill Avenue, but City Engineer Monroe Brewer has told the aldermen that state highway department engineers have ruled that such an arrangement is not feasible because of traffic movements in and out of the nearby high school and junior high school.

In making his proposal for the left-turn ban on Johnson Road, Decatur said that any line of traffic moving out of the Bellemore parking lot is delayed by motorists trying to make left turns into Johnson Road because of oncoming traffic from both directions.

"It's not near as difficult to make a right turn as it is to make a left turn into Johnson Road from Bellemore because a motorist turning left has to wait for the traffic to clear," Decatur said. "This backs up traffic into the parking lot."

Alderman Ronald Coleman of the Seventh Ward urged the council to rescind its action of a week ago prohibiting right turns on a red light from Nameoki Road into Johnson Road because, he said, the delay "is backing up the traffic on Nameoki Road."

Coleman asked that the Traffic Committee headed by Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Third Ward make a further study of the right turn ban at that point and that the council consider repealing the regulation.

Alderman Earl Baker of the Sixth Ward supported Coleman in the suggestion because of the back-up of traffic on Nameoki Road which he also said is caused by the right turn prohibition.

The council's earlier action also included a ban on right turns on a red light from Fehling Road into Nameoki Road, but no opposition to this

Farm landlords, tenants

(7th of a Bicentennial year Press-Record series)

This year's drought has created problems, but as a general rule agriculture flourishes here and throughout Illinois, the No. 1 state for several crops.

The current outlook contrasts with 1890, when the dream of becoming a landowner, of owning one's farm, seemed impossible to a large proportion of prairie farmers.

In nearly every frontier town, regardless of size, the leader of society, the president of the bank, the owner of the big house, got his start as a result of his ability to take advantage of the increase in land values in the 19th Century.

The models were such land speculators as John Griggs, Solomon Sturges and Romulus Riggs, who bought and sold hundreds of thousands of acres at prices well beyond the means of most immigrants.

Or they rented their lands at prices equivalent to or higher than the government's charge for its land.

Frontier landlords accumulated vast holdings. Isaac Funk boasted a huge Car located

The car of Roscoe Willman, 43, Greenville, Ill., was pulled from the Mississippi River between Gabaret and Mosen, their islands yesterday afternoon and was impounded by the Madison County Sheriff's Department as evidence in the case against Mr. Willman's alleged murderer—a 17-year-old Mitchell girl.

Mr. Willman's body was found a week ago in a shallow grave on a farm tract near Interstate 270 and Route 3 after a Madison policeman received a tip a body had been buried there.

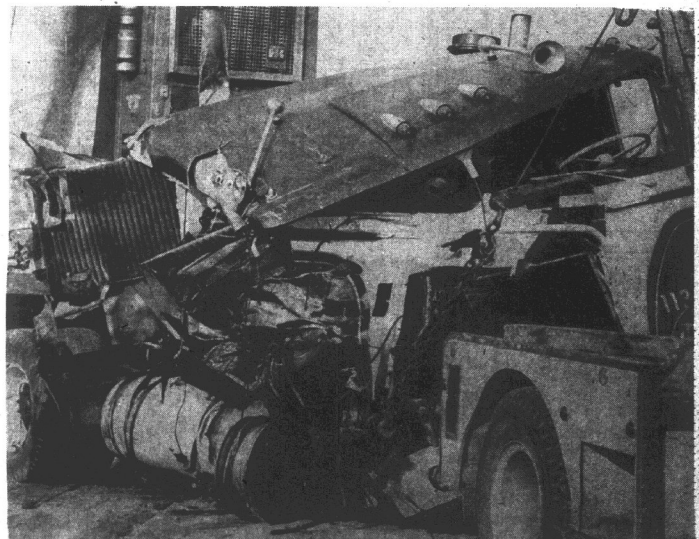

A search warrant was obtained and the grave was found under a pile of lumber after several hours of searching and preliminary excavations.

The body was exhumed and Mr. Willman was pronounced dead at the scene. Susan Rae Mueller, 17, of Rural Route One, Granite City, was arrested at her home near the grave Friday and was charged with murder.

Her mother, Mrs. Barbara Ann Hammond, 36, of the same address, was arrested and charged with obstructing justice for allegedly helping bury Mr. Willman.

Mrs. Hammond was freed on $25,000 bond and Miss Mueller was released on a $50,000 bond. Deputies allege there was a fight in the Hammond home between Mrs. Hammond and Mr. Willman and Miss Mueller shot Mr. Willman in the back

Veteran compares Carter, Kennedy

By AL MANNING

SPRINGFIELD — Jimmy Carter often is compared to the late John F. Kennedy. He has vigor, good looks and boyish charm.

But Raskin thinks there's more to it than meets the eye. Both astute politicians, he says, "Up early in the morning to get the work done that's necessary. Up at 4 a.m. to get one-half a vote. A high degree of self confidence. Very smart men."

Raskin ought to know what he's talking about. He's been involved in national campaigns since 1952 and he was the third person to join the Kennedy for president campaign staff.

Now he's directing Mike Howlett's campaign for governor.

During recent interviews, the Chicago lawyer talked about Kennedy's political career, the political emergence of Carter and Howlett's campaign.

"I had worked as an executive assistant to Stephen Mitchell at the Democratic National Committee," Raskin said, referring to the days when close associates of Adlai Stevenson dominated national politics.

Stevenson was planning to run for president, and he wanted someone with experience. So, George Springer heard that Kennedy wanted to see me.

"I finally met him in New York. During our conversation, he was interrupted by a telephone call. I overheard him say the baby would be born tomorrow."

"Gee, I thought, he might know a lot about politics, but he doesn't know anything about the baby business."

"It turned out he was right, of course. Caroline was born the next day by Caesarean section."

Raskin says he wasn't sold on Kennedy as a candidate at first because he was young and a Catholic. Then he looked around and saw the other candidates had glaring weaknesses, too.

Describing Carter, he says: "Here is a guy who starts out with real political liabilities. He's a Southerner with the exception of Lyndon Johnson a Southerner has not been nominated since the Civil War. There's skepticism about that."

"He's got no platform. He had been a governor, but he doesn't really hold office. His staff has no connections outside of Georgia."

How did he win the nomination, then?

"He took a lead out of Kennedy's book. He went to the states, down to the grassroots to start early."

Raskin also praises Carter for the manner in which he's been able to work with both Gov. Dan Walker and Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley. As an example, he cited Carter's request of Walker to endorse Howlett.

"Carter's the best political technician I've seen since Kennedy," he said. "The way he handled the Walker situation and his willingness to get into it. He didn't have to be asked, advised or conned into it. He knew it was very important to Chicago. The remarks about Howlett were the right things to say."

Although he hasn't been involved in a gubernatorial campaign in a number of years, Raskin says it doesn't take long to discover which things have changed.

"My bag is organization," he says. "I start with fundamentals. To get the maximum benefit out of workers, you have to be organized."

The strategy is simple. Howlett is well prepared for governor due to his experience. The other guy isn't. Referring to the constant challenge to debate from the opponent, Raskin says: "A debate would only prove who is the best debater, and that's not a function of the governor. It's an administrative office. Now a man running for the House or Senate may need to be a good debater, but that's not the governor's job. Skills an administrator are essential. Skills as a debater are unimportant. If the other guy's a good debater and looks good on television, I don't blame him for raising the issue. But when you strip that away, what does it prove?"

In the best tradition of a veteran politician, Raskin succeeded in talking about "the other guy" at length — without ever once mentioning his name.

7th-ranked Cougars in 10-0 win

Ranked seventh nationally among American college soccer teams this week, the SIUE Cougars looked sharp in a 10-0 victory Wednesday at Blackburn College, Carlinville.

Tim Holstein scored three goals and Greg Villa and freshman Dave Hummert, two goals each.

Now 5-0 for the season, SIUE will battle the third-ranked University of Tennessee at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Cougar Field.

Clemson a year ago in South Carolina edged SIUE 2-1 in the rain as the Cougars headed home from a grueling trip through Florida.

Baker, North finish first

Steeler Mike Baker led a field of cross-country runners representing three schools across the finish line in 14 minutes, 13 seconds Tuesday on the 2.75-mile course at GCHS North.

North won the meet with 15 points. Triad (Troy St. Jacob) Marinel was second with 25 points. Venice third with 85.

Finishing also for North were Greg Stout second, Don Larson third, Dave Ebrecht fourth and John Bracamotes sixth.

Placing for Venice were Lawrence Odum 19th in 45, John Roberts 21st, Frank Papp 22nd, Eddy Fleig 23rd and Rod Williams 24th.

SMOKE FILLS HOUSE
A pan on a stove overheated and caught fire, filling the home of Robert McElvair, 2423 Bryan Ave., with smoke at 2 p.m. Tuesday. Granite City firemen used smoke extractors to clear the smoke out. They were on the scene 20 minutes. There was only minor damage to the house.

Global poll—concern over urban trend, differing standards of living

In an historic first, pollster George H. Gallup has released findings of what he terms "the most important poll in which I have ever been involved"—the first global public-opinion survey.

Developed by scholars and research experts over a period of more than a year and a half, and then extensively pre-tested and repeatedly revised, the survey in its final form included more than 100 searching questions.

It involved a scientifically selected sample of more than 10,000 subjects in nearly 70 countries on six continents, representing almost two-thirds of the human race. Excluded were Communist nations, most Arab countries and a few military dictatorships that do not permit such surveys.

In summarizing the 18-volume survey prior to its general release, Gallup writes that the objective was "to assess the happiness, ambitions, worries and problems of the world's inhabitants, and to probe their attitudes toward issues of global concern."

The most important findings, he says, concern man's material and psychological well-being, and deductions concerning mankind's future directions.

"The fact that dominates the survey is the economic gulf that separates the 'haves' from the 'have-not' nations," he writes. Two-thirds of all respondents in Latin America, Africa and the Far East say that they worry "a lot" or "most of the time" about meeting family expenses, including food and clothing, while almost 90 percent of Americans and West Europeans are free of such worries.

A number of ominous portents for mankind's future arose in the survey.

For example, in the developing world, 75 percent of the people currently live in rural areas. Yet, more than half of those interviewed in Latin America, Africa and the Far East would move to cities if given a choice.

If they should get their wish, Gallup notes, "urban areas in the Third World would have to absorb more than one billion new inhabitants in the next generation."

Similarly disturbing is the desire expressed by more than a quarter of the respondents in Latin America and the Far East for at least four children, and two-thirds of the Africans, who opted for five or more.

Questions about religious attitudes revealed that only one percent of respondents in the Third World would believe in a deity.

Majorities ranging from 60 percent in Great Britain to 90 percent in Africa believe in God or a universal spirit.

In India, even though overpopulation is a major cause of starvation, half of those surveyed would like to see the population increase still more.

Letter from

by Senator Charles H. Percy

Solar energy has long been heralded as the power source of the future. The Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA) estimates that by the year 2020 solar energy will provide nearly ten percent of our nation's energy needs and up to 25 percent by the year 2050. Yet few Americans are aware that sun-generated power is available today.

Our energy consumption rate continues to climb and we are importing more and more foreign oil to meet our apparently insatiable demand. Energy conservation policies have not been effective. For a short time, following the Arab oil boycott, our consumption rate leveled off.

However, as the country pulls out of the recent economic recession, energy demands are again on the upswing. Conservation programs to date have been a gigantic failure.

Alternative energy sources are being researched and tested in various ERDA-sponsored programs across the country. In an effort to keep the public informed on the breakthroughs in this field and how alternate energy sources can be directly tapped, I am organizing a series of energy conferences in Illinois.

The first conference will focus on solar energy research and equipment that is now available for residential, commercial and industrial use. Scheduled for Saturday, October 6, the conference will be held at the University of Illinois at the Champaign campus and will be open to the public free of charge.

In addition to product exhibits and participatory workshops, the conference will feature addresses by such prominent experts as Frank Zarb, Director of the Federal Energy Administration; Henry Marvin, director of the solar energy division of ERDA, and Dr. Barry Commoner, noted author and ecologist.

The conference workshops are designed to supplement the speakers' panel and provide information of specific use to potential solar energy consumers in Illinois. The workshops will focus on such topics as heating and cooling of buildings, government solar energy policy, and the legal, institutional and economic technicalities of using solar energy. For instance, few Illinoisans are aware that under state law they can convert their home heating systems to use solar energy without being penalized by home improvement property taxes.

Exhibits, displayed by various solar energy organizations and firms in Illinois, will give the public attending the conference specific information on the different types of solar energy equipment now available on the market. Representatives from the firms will be on hand to answer questions on the cost and operation of the equipment.

The solar energy conference will be just the first in a series that I plan to sponsor in Illinois. Next spring a pollution-free energy forum will be held on coal and its future potential as a pollution-free energy source. It will be followed by conferences on nuclear power and energy conservation.

The research on alternative energy sources is already well advanced. It is now time for the consumer to learn how he can take advantage of the new technologies that have the potential to supplement, if not replace our current energy sources.

Rezoning issue delayed again

The Granite City Council Tuesday night deferred for the second time action on a City Plan Commission recommendation that a request for rezoning for construction of a Taco Bell Restaurant at 2021 Johnson Road be rejected.

Council action on the commission report was deferred in the council's Sept. 21 meeting on a request by William Brandt, Granite City attorney who told council members he had been retained to represent James Royce, petitioner for the rezoning, but had not had sufficient time to prepare a presentation in the case.

In Tuesday night's meeting, Brandt sent the council a letter in which he asked for another one-week delay in considering the matter, noting that he was unable to attend this week's council session.

An effort by Aldermen Ronald Coleman and Emerald Davis, both of the Seventh Ward, to defer the matter a second time met with objections from Aldermen Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward and Gerald Farnham of the Sixth Ward on grounds that council rules provide that any matter once deferred must be considered by the council in its next meeting.

City Attorney George Filcoff ruled, however, that discussion of the issue and the new motion constituted consideration of the matter and that a motion to defer a second time was in order.

Royce sought a rezoning of the 2021 Johnson Road site from R-2 (residential) to C-1 (commercial) classification to operate a Taco Bell Restaurant.

The Plan Commission rejected the request because of objections by neighborhood residents living in the vicinity of the proposed restaurant site was filed with the council Tuesday night. The petition asked rejection of the rezoning on grounds that it would devalue property, create a noise and general nuisance factor, would present a safety hazard to school children and would contribute to traffic congestion on Johnson Road.

The petition also said that there "is an excess of restaurants on Johnson Road." The petition was placed on file.

Stolen car wrecked in chase, driver escapes

Granite City police chased a stolen car from Denver Street and Nevada Avenue to Route 3 a mile north of West Pontoon Road at 9:25 p.m. Wednesday and the chase ended when the car crashed into a fence and a ditch and the driver escaped on foot into high weeds.

Patrolman Terry May attempted to stop the car for a routine traffic violation and reported the car refused to pull over. The chase began and continued until the car went out of control on Route 3 at P.E. Line Road, left the roadway, knocked down about 40 feet of fence and went into the ditch.

The driver fled into the weeds and a search was fruitless.

The owner of the car, Beverly Nolen, 2828 Denver St., was contacted and said she believed a 17-year-old neighbor had "hot wired" the car's ignition and taken it.

Police checked the ignition and found it had been short circuited to start without a key. A young man is being sought for questioning in connection with the auto theft and chase.

Broken sewer pump repaired

A large pump in the city's sanitary sewer lines on the west bank of the Nameoki ditch just south of Johnson Road broke about 7 p.m. yesterday, causing raw sewage to be dumped into the Nameoki Ditch for about five hours until repairs could be completed.

Street Superintendent Lionel

Portell told the Press-Record at the scene, "We hate to dump raw sewage into the ditch, but there is nothing else we can do unless we just want to let it back up into people's houses."

The broken pump brings sewage from underground up to a temporary bypass line on top of the ground beside the Nameoki Ditch.

The section of the line north of the broken pump was sealed off and a fire hydrant was turned on to help dilute the sewage going into the ditch, Portell explained.

Crews then were sent down into the manhole to remove the broken pump. Debris was found in the pump housing and the impeller was fastened more firmly to the motor shaft before the motor was lowered back into the sewer and turned on about 8 p.m.

"It worked beautifully," Portell recalled, adding the sewage then was allowed to flow through the sewer, into the pump and then through the surface by-pass line back into the city sewers about 300 yards south.

The pump and by-pass line were necessitated by an underground sewer line break along the ditch which has not yet been repaired.

Illinois Republicans using debate 'pyramid'

Former Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, chairman of the Illinois Ford-Dole Committee, said yesterday that response to the first debate from Ford-Dole backers throughout Illinois has been "tremendous."

The Illinois Ford-Dole campaign sent out a statewide "debate pyramid" mailing to 22,500 supporters, calling on them to invite ten guests to their home to watch the debates.

Each guest was to sign a form that will be sent to the White House via the Ford-Dole headquarters in Chicago.

"The guest lists have been pouring in from debate pyramid hosts all over the state," Ogilvie said, "and the comments clearly indicate that Ford was the winner."

From Nancy Behnen in Urbana: "The majority of the people here were impressed with President Ford."

From Mary G. Small in Ulica (LaSalle County): "We are convinced that President Ford is the man."

From Joie Baker in McLeansboro (Hamilton County): "All the ones I invited are now for Mr. Ford."

From Howard Olson in Carbondale: "The consensus was that the President did well. He was clear, concise and direct in his remarks. Carter was fuzzy, particularly in the beginning."

From Linda Seals in Springfield: "It was not really a debate at all. The President was the decisive winner."

Plans call for each of the ten guests who watched the first debate at the home of a Ford-

Dole supporter to invite ten guests to their home for the second debate," Ogilvie said.

"The heart of the President's campaign is the debates," he said, "and the debate pyramid program offers a group situation in which the President's strong points can be reinforced, and his support solidated among Republicans, Democrats and independents."

State's bond debt said to be rising too fast

The state of Illinois is selling general obligation bonds at a record-high pace "not prudent" in view of the state's present financial crunch, Comptroller George Lindberg said today.

As a result of soaring bond sales, the per capita debt in Illinois has nearly doubled since 1972, when it was $84; when the 1975-76 fiscal year ended on June 30, the debt had jumped to $158 for each Illinois citizen, Lindberg said in his monthly financial report.

"This explosion in the rate of incurring debt by the state severely limits growth in other programs, such as education," the comptroller said.

In 1975-76, the state sold $450 million in general obligation bonds, the highest yearly sale in state history, nearly double the $250 million sold in 1974-75, the highest previous year.

Planned bond sales in 1976-77 which began July 1, have been announced for up to $435 million, with $125 million already sold.

If the state sells this $435 million in 1977, it will have committed $88 million in two years for debt service that otherwise could have been used in 1978 for school aid and other state programs," Lindberg said.

For each $100 million of new debt, Lindberg said, the state initially incurs a yearly cost of $10 million, the state sold $450 million in general obligation bonds last year, it must curtail programs financed by the general fund and the road fund by $45 million in 1977.

On June 10, I presented a plan to hold the line on state spending, balance the budget and get the state through the next two years without a tax hike.

"In that program, I outlined that $300 million in new bond sales would be a reasonable, prudent ceiling this fiscal year. But $885 million in new debt in two years, given the state's fiscal condition, is not prudent," Lindberg said.

"I urge Governor Walker to lower the $435 million in bond sales he announced for this year on Sept. 1 to a level the state can reasonably afford."

Union bricklayers picket in Madison

Informational pickets from Bricklayers Local 65, AFL-CIO, were placed today at the Taurus Meat Co., 1200 Greenwood St., Madison, after the union was advised a contractor building an addition to the plant "is not hiring union bricklayers from Local 65."

Robert A. Weiss, Local 65 business manager, said picketing was authorized to start this morning at the site, where construction of an addition to the present building is underway.

10 HOUR CLEANUP at the Edwardsville Road railroad crossing near 20th Street is shown Tuesday morning as sides of beef were transferred from the wrecked tractor-trailer into another trailer. The tractor on the left was struck by a train. The driver escaped with only minor injuries.

Use of conference center is outlined

Guidelines for use of the Olin Conference and Cultural Center during an experimental period from Oct. 1 through Dec. 31 were announced today by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The center is the former John M. Olin estate on bluffs overlooking the Mississippi River northwest of Alton.

Given to the university by Olin on May 8, 1975, the center will be used "exclusively for charitable, cultural, scientific, literary and educational purposes" in compliance with the donor's wishes, the guidelines state.

According to Ralph W. Ruffner, senior vice-president for planning and review at SIUE, under whose administrative supervision the experimental use period will operate, the guidelines were evolved from recommendations of a special administrative task force.

The recommendations include:

"The university plans to develop and operate the center with a focus on providing a balanced program of instruction, research and service activities for citizens, business, and public and private entities."

Ruffner said general policies for use of the Olin Center include those in "Policies Governing the Use of University Property for Scheduled Events and Meetings," approved by the SIUE Board of Trustees in 1967. In addition to units and organizations of the university and students, non-university groups may use the facilities with approval of the university scheduling officer.

The Olin Center facilities available for use are the first floor of the mansion and immediate grounds.

One event may be scheduled per day, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., seven days a week. No cooking will be permitted, but groups may take their own prepared food to the center or use an outside catering service.

The university will charge student organizations $25 per day for use of the center and non-student groups, $50 per day.

Requests for use of the center should be submitted to the Office of Conferences and Institutes in the University Center.

Ruffner said the experimental use period is being coordinated with other administrative units of the university and the SIUE Foundation, which is acting as the operations and maintenance agent for SIUE in regard to the center. Olin gave grants to the Foundation totaling $150,000 for this purpose.

A comprehensive evaluation of the experimental use period will be made, Ruffner said. Following Dec. 31, he will make recommendations to the university president concerning the future of the center.

North golfers edge South

GCHS North emerged victorious Tuesday afternoon on the par-36 Arlington Golf Course, 171-175, over GCHS South. North's junior varsity squad also won, 148-158.

Steele Dan Harper paced the victors with a 40 score, followed by Mike Cella with 41 and Russ

HOME ECONOMISTS

STUDY CHILD ABUSE

Area home economists studied child abuse at a District V meeting of the Illinois Home Economics Association (IHEA). The Rev. Kenneth Edelman, of the Board of Directors for the Children, Family and Youth Advocacy Council of Belleville, led the discussion.

Other parts of the program included comments on professionalism by Roberta Archer, state IHEA president, and announcement of a new course at SIUE. Granite City home economists hosted the meeting held in the home economics department of Granite City High School North.

Chappell Jr. and Scott Robertson posting identical 45 scores.

For South's Warriors, Bob Filer, Bob Crawford and Al Collins each shot a 43 score and Jim Cedar had 46.

Chris Anderson was low scorer of the jayvee meet with 43 for North. Kathy Giley had 52 and Rod Henke 53.

South's jayvee golfers were led by Joe Kings 49, Kevin Rhomie 53 and Jeff Davis 56.

Lisa A. Smith is queen, Scott Barunica is escort for South Homecoming

Lisa A. Smith, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell (Ruth) Smith, 2025 Clark Ave., was crowned Granite City High School South Homecoming queen, and Scott Barunica, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank (Agnes) Barunica, 1928 Grand Ave., was named queen's escort.

The official coronation ceremonies and presentation of the queen, her escort and the court took place in the GCHS South school auditorium Wednesday night following the first performance of the Homecoming play, "The Miracle Worker."

The ceremonies will be repeated following the play tonight. There are no seats available for the play due to heavy advance ticket sales.

Queen Lisa, a senior and

She is a member of Job's Daughters, likes to swim and works as a lifeguard.

Members of the court are Sandra Benson, Sue Barry, Lynn Diak, Jane Friederich, Maureen Hoedebecke, Cindy K. Hicks, executive vice-president, and Nancy Weil.

The queen's escort Scott also is a senior and is in a vocational sheet metal study program. He intends to enter the trade as an apprentice after high school. His hobbies include swimming, playing football with friends and working on autos.

Other members of the official court are Brian Beljanski, Keith Champton, Mike Clark, Paul Evans, Brian Konzen, Mike McCraven, Joe Parente, Chris Rapoff and John Slay.

The queen and her escort were chosen by secret ballot of the South student body on Thursday, Sept. 23, and kept a closely-guarded secret until last night.

Anderson staff officers named

Appointments of interim medical staff officers, executive committee members and chiefs of departments of the new Oliver C. Anderson Hospital were confirmed Tuesday night by the board of directors of Southwestern Illinois Health Facilities, Daniel A. Hicks, executive vice-president, said. The hospital, not yet open, is at Route 162 and Old Edwardsville Road, Maryville.

The group that forms the nucleus of the medical staff will serve as a credentialing committee in approving physician applicants for staff membership. President is Dr. Peter Barth, obstetrician and gynecologist, Collinsville, vice-president is Dr. Henry Malench, physician and surgeon, Edwardsville, secretary Dr. Michael S. Pozsgay, radiologist, Belleville and East St. Louis, and Dr. Julian Buser, internist, Belleville and East St. Louis.

The executive committee consists of Dr. Martin Audin, internist and allergist, Collinsville, Dr. Robert Greaves, family practitioner and obstetrician, Collinsville, Dr. H. Frank Holman, pathologist, East St. Louis and St. Louis, and Dr. Walter Zielonko, general practitioner and obstetrician, Troy.

Chiefs of service are: medicine, Dr. Francisco Tejeda, internist, Collinsville; surgery, Dr. Michael Beatty, general surgeon, Edwardsville; and obstetrics, Dr. Anthony Morrison, obstetrician and gynecologist, Collinsville.

South vs. North in soccer; Warriors top McCluer team

An annual varsity soccer contest between GCHS North and GCHS South will take place at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow at South Field. Both teams have been perennial state soccer title contenders.

Warrior Coach Gene Baker told the Press-Record, "Winners of previous meetings between the two schools—and current player injuries being experienced—are overshadowed by the importance of the game and by the tensions involved."

Steele mentor Robert Kehoe believes that "the team that makes the fewest mistakes, by overcoming the excitement in the early going, is going to win."

"Like close contests," adds Kehoe, "they result in more interesting competition and the players learn how to operate under the same kind of pressure they would encounter in the state tournament."

Most past games between the soccer Warriors and Steelers have been decided by the narrowest margins. Defense again is likely to be emphasized Friday.

The Warriors enter tomorrow's game with an 8-1 record which includes seven shutouts. Barry Briggs is goalkeeper.

The Steelers have a 9-2 record, including eight shutouts, with Mike Hill as goalkeeper.

On the injury list at South are defensive player Gary Phelps and offensive standouts Rick Fernandez and Greg Feigl.

Coach Baker also notes that South's leading scorer, David Goldschmidt, with 15 goals, has been unable to practice this week due to a bout with the flu.

Coach Kehoe's Steelers are also hampered by the injury sidelining of Clifford Stefanoff, Ed "Rain", Jim Goodyear and Bob Yount.

Warrior Goalie Barry Briggs chalked up his seventh shutout as the South soccer team hosted McCluer North of St. Louis and won 1-0 in 66-41 Monday.

Fernandez scored the lone goal on a penalty kick set up on a throw-in by teammate Mike Voegel after Feigl was fouled.

"This was a big victory for us as McCluer North is a highly-rated St. Louis team," Baker said.

"Phelps led our defense, but was kicked in the knee rather hard near the end of the game. We had some outstanding midfield play by Rick Becherer."

The McCluer junior varsity soccer team beat South 3-2, giving the South JV's their first loss after four wins.

Goals for South in the JV action were scored by Bob Gilmore and Alan Valencia.

Rotary-Optimist Camelot Saturday

Thousands of Quad-City area persons will benefit from funds raised by the annual Granite City Rotary-Optimist club Camelot Auction scheduled Saturday at the Sunset Hills Country Club.

The event will begin at 5:30 p.m. with a social hour, followed by a buffet dinner, after which hundreds of items will be auctioned at the rate of about one a minute.

Items auctioned are either donated by local merchants and citizens, or loaned to the clubs at cost, with all profits earned divided by the two service clubs and used for civic projects. The items vary from Picasso's to fire hydrants, and from $5 and $10 to several hundred in value.

A few tickets remain available at $12 each which includes the buffet. Anyone wishing to inquire on ticket availability is advised to call John McDonald at 876-1212.

Lawrence Maher leads county Cancer Crusade

Lawrence Maher, manager of the public affairs department at Olin Corporation, will serve as chairman of the 1977 Cancer Crusade for Madison County, according to Thad Carter, board chairman of the American Cancer Society, Madison County Unit.

In accepting the Crusade leadership post, Maher said, "I am truly looking forward to working for the American Cancer Society this next year, because I certainly am aware of the fine work they are doing in the field of research, service to the cancer patients and their excellent public and professional education programs."

Maher and his wife, Maureen, and their three youngsters live in Alton. He is a member of the Alton YMCA board of directors and Piasa Bicycle Trails, Inc. Presently, Maher also is serving as vice-president of legislative affairs division of the Greater Alton Chamber of Commerce.

The new chairman is planning to meet with volunteer workers after Jan. 1 to discuss plans for the 1977 Crusade.

Contributions in 1975-76 campaign amounted to $81,484 and was the largest sum ever collected in Madison County to aid the Cancer Society's programs, Carter announced.

Roadblock Saturday to aid Special Education

The Parents for Special Education will sponsor a roadblock on Madison Avenue at Sixth Street from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Saturday, it was announced today.

Persons wishing to volunteer an hour or two of their time to help the group are asked to contact Mrs. Kay Hahne, at 451-9822. The organization consists of parents of children in the three local school districts.

Permission has been granted by officials of the City of Madison to set up the roadblock and solicit passing motorists, Mrs. Hahne said.

Donations to the Parents for Special Education are used to provide recreational activities for all handicapped persons in the Quad-City area and to aid teachers of the handicapped fulfill extraordinary requests, Mrs. Hahne said.

A recent rummage sale sponsored by the group netted $102 for the fund, she advised.

Landlords

estate of 27,000 acres primarily in McLean County, where he established a "bonanza farm" worked partially by tenant farmers.

"Michael Sullivan, 'the world's largest farmer,' owned and managed 80,000 acres in Champaign, Ford, Livingston and Vermilion counties in the late 1850s.

"In 1866, he sold his 22,000-acre farm, Broadlands, in Champaign County and moved to a 40,000-acre tract, Burr Oaks, in Ford and Livingston counties.

"This became the best-known farm in America as stories about its operations spread abroad.

"Between 1836 and 1855, Matthew T. Scott purchased a total of 43,000 acres of land, mostly in Livingston, Grundy, McLean and Piatt counties.

His son, Matthew T. Scott Jr., laid out the town of Chenoa in 1852, which featured large corncribs and warehouses to receive the quantity of produce he expected from his numerous tenants.

He built 200 tenant houses, set out 275 miles of hedge, dug 150 miles of ditching, and tilled 5,000 acres.

Beginning in 1863, Samuel Allerton acquired 11,655 acres in Piatt County and 3,660 in Vermilion County which he devoted primarily to pasturing cattle.

His son, Robert Allerton, built the elaborate manor house in Monticello, presently Allerton Park and owned by the University of Illinois.

William Scully began to establish an estate in 1850 which outranked all others in Illinois in acreage and value as well as in the hostility it attracted.

Scully was the head of a prominent land-owning family in Tippecanoe County, Ireland, where the family lived at the center of political attacks and controversy for its heavy-handed landlordism.

By 1880 in the four states of Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska, Scully amassed a land empire amounting to 220,000 acres at a cost to him of $1,353,000.

In Illinois, he had magnificent holdings in Logan, Sangamon and Livingston counties.

By 1850, the state had an average of 34 per cent of its farms operated by tenants.

Ford County, which contained the Sullivan estate, had the highest proportion, 54 per cent.

In Logan County, where Scully had 225 farms, and many others were owned by a few large landowners, 52 per cent of the farms were tenant-operated.

Madison County had one half of its farms in tenant hands.

Fourth came Christian County, followed by Piatt County, where the Allerton estates were all located, and then Grundy County, where Scully owned 70 to 80 farms.

Gradually, tenants began to revolt against the situation. The term "Scullyism" was meant to represent the worst elements of absentee landlordism—including Scully's insistence that his tenants rather than he improve the land and that tenants pay cash rent rather than a share of the crop.

At a time when business and industrial combinations were causing indignation, it was natural that the same sentiment was directed toward large landlords.

As a result, on June 16, 1887, two laws were approved by the governor of Illinois.

They prohibited nonresident aliens from acquiring real estate, and prevented alien landlords from requiring tenants to pay the taxes assessed upon the land they rented.

These laws forced Scully to take out citizenship in the United States to assure that his land could be passed on to his heirs, and in some ways the legislation also ended the era of acquisition of great personal estates.

Much of the land-lord-tenant relationship in the state of Illinois was caused by government land policy which permitted huge purchases of land by speculators.

In the postwar period, the rise in land values and prices made it difficult for common laborers to become owners.

Demands for improving prairie soil were beyond the capacity of many would-be farmers.

It can be argued that land-lordism and agriculture were important, even inevitable, institutions on the frontier

Study new use of grant funds

The Nameoki Town Board of Auditors has been informed by the Madison County Community Development office that funds from the township's community development grant can not be used to purchase a tornado warning system for Arlington Heights.

The township was to study the possibility of using the money to enlarge water mains to the Cloverleaf subdivision, but preliminary estimates now indicate that would be too expensive.

A township community development committee meeting has been called for Oct. 7 at 7 p.m. in the town hall to study what should be done with the extra $6,000.

Nameoki Township Supervisor Louis Whitsett was informed last week that the community development funds could not be used for the tornado warning system in Arlington Heights since Civil Defense would be involved with the project and Civil Defense is receiving another federal grant.

Community Development grant guidelines forbid "mixing" federal funds on any project.

Whitsett had requested the community development committee consider appropriating the $6,000 for larger water mains to the Cloverleaf Addition southeast of Madison, since that area has only two-inch mains, too small to install fire hydrants.

Whitsett, however, said Wednesday he has contacted the Interurban Water Co. and has received a rough estimate the work could cost as much as $50,000, since the nearest sufficient water supply is in the Maerz Industrial Park in Madison and larger water mains would have to be installed from there to Cloverleaf.

Whitsett had requested the

Clarence Valle, 81, dies

Clarence W. Valle, 81, of 4310 Kirkpatrick Homes, died at 9:29 p.m. Tuesday at the DeArden Nursing Home, Godfrey. He had been ill two years and a resident at the nursing home one month.

Born in Potosi, Mo., Mr. Valle moved to this area in 1920.

He retired in 1961 at the American Steel Foundries where he was employed as a crane operator.

Mr. Valle was a member of the Second Baptist Church.

His wife, Mrs. Marie Valle, died in 1972.

Survivors include one son, Charles Valle of New Orleans, La.; a brother, Ellis Rousseau of Granite City, and five grandchildren.

Arrangements are given in the obituary column.

his neck with a handgun about the second week of August.

She and her mother then allegedly dug a two-foot deep grave, placed Mr. William's body in it, covered the body with lime and buried him.

Nearly seven weeks later, the body was found. Information obtained during the investigation led officers to believe Mr. William's auto had been dumped in the Mississippi River south of Osageau Island.

The Alton Volunteer Emergency Corps and the Bubblemasters' Underwater Recovery Team (BURT) located an auto with magnets and pulled it from the Mississippi River about 1 p.m. Tuesday. It was identified about 3 p.m. Tuesday as Mr. William's auto and was impounded by deputies as evidence.

A spokesman for the sheriff's department said no additional arrests are anticipated in the case.

action was expressed in Tuesday night's discussion.

Several aldermen have complained that traffic lights along Nameoki Road are not properly synchronized, contributing to traffic backups.

Whitsell asks new vote on use permit for dental office

Louis Whitsell, Nameoki Township supervisor and District 26 representative on the Madison County Board, has requested Madison County Clerk Evelyn Bowles to place a zoning request for a dental office on Maryville Road in Northland Estates on the Madison County Board's agenda Oct. 20 for reconsideration.

Whitsell said he voted in favor of granting a special use permit to Earl and Bernadine Smith, owners of the property, and Dr. Jack J. Miller and Dr. Mark Frederick, purchasers, for a dental office at Maryville Road and Clinton Drive in Nameoki Township.

He said he was told only off-street parking was a problem and voted to grant the permit with the stipulation that adequate off-street parking be provided.

In his letter to Miss Bowles, Whitsell stated, "From the finding of facts of the Madison County Board of Zoning Appeals, I determined that the only controversy was the off-street parking for the dental office; however, I have since found that there is additional controversy that was discussed at the public hearing."

Residents of Northland Estates have been objecting that the area is slowly being turned commercial one lot at a time and said after the permit was approved Sept. 23 that they would attempt to fight the decision of the county board.

County board rules note that any zoning decision may be reversed if a member willing to change his vote brings it up for consideration and if a majority of the board approves the reversal.

MRS. MITZI HOBBS IS CARD CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Mitzi Hobbs entertained members of a card club last week in her home in Manchester, Mo.

Prize winners included Mamie Nowicki, Winnie Sasyk and Lillian Crawford. Also present were Marie Muehl, Susan Dragich, Betty Gudac, Vera Smolar, Billie Githoff, Irene Haischer.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and the next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Marie Muehl, East St. Louis, it was announced.

TOOL BOX STOLEN

A hasp was pried from the lock to gain entry to the shed of Ellis Angle, 2635 E. 23rd St., and a tool box and tools were stolen between 5 p.m. Monday and 12:40 p.m. Tuesday. The value of the tools is not known.

Tickets still remain for the Granite City Park District's annual trip to the Shipsteads and Johnson's Ice Follies for the 6 o'clock performance on Sunday evening, Oct. 17.

A bus will leave the Wilson Park ice rink for the St. Louis Arena at 4:30 p.m. Oct. 17. This year only 43 seats are available. Tickets in the Arena Circle, a good viewing area, according to park officers, cost $4.50 for adults and $2.75 for children, 16 years and under. An additional $2.25 per person is charged for roundtrip transportation.

Reservations must be made in person at the Wilson Park office any weekday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Man on bike suffers injury

Danny Williams, 32, of 3013 National Ave., was injured when the bicycle he was riding and the van of Kenneth Dunaway, Rural Route One, Box 506, Sand Prairie Lane, collided at St. Clair and Myrtle avenues at 3:35 p.m. Tuesday.

Williams was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for abrasions to his right elbow, left hand and left knee. X-rays were taken and he was released.

Services today for Clarence Tourville

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. today at a Belleville funeral home for Clarence V. "Terry" Tourville, 63, of Washington Park, step-father of Mrs. Carolyn Johnson and Mrs. Rose Marcia both of Granite City.

He died Monday at Centerville Township Hospital. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ethel Mead Tourville; two daughters; another step-daughter; one step-son; five sisters and three brothers.

AMERICAN LEGION CAUCUS ON OCT. 10

A call has been made by the 22nd District commander, Ralph Blumberg, for an official American Legion caucus to be held at the St. Jacob American Legion Home at 1 p.m. Oct. 10.

Plans for fall and winter activities will be completed. Reports are being requested from all officers and committee chairmen. Fifty posts exist in the Madison-Bond, St. Clair, Monroe, and Washington County Councils, all within the 22nd District.

CHOUTEAU HALL GROUND BREAKING is held during the weekend despite the rain with citizens and township officials attending the event. Construction is to begin immediately of the new town hall and community center building located near the township garage in Mitchell. The building cost is $161,977. Future of State Park police unit depends on volunteers

While last-ditch efforts are under way to save the State Park Volunteer Police Department from disbanding, Nameoki Township is continuing its efforts to establish a similar police unit to patrol Nameoki Township Precincts 3, 5 and 11.

Despite a threat that more volunteers join a program of training for the State Park police unit by Saturday or their squad car will be sold, the Nameoki Township Board of Auditors voted Monday night to award contracts for radios, uniforms, leather goods, sirens and other equipment for the Nameoki unit.

The board previously approved the purchase of a new squad car for $5,412 from Bo Beuckman Ford, Collinsville, which is to be delivered in early November. Both departments rely on federal revenue sharing grants from the township for cars, uniforms and equipment.

Letters notifying Beuckman its bid had been accepted and notifying Radi-Com of Troy that contracts totaling $1,349 for radios, lights and radio equipment have been approved were read to the town board Monday night.

The board also voted to award contracts to Trader's Gun Inc., Alton, for $407 for leather goods and Universal Uniforms, St. Louis, in the amount of $1,041 for seven uniforms. Both were low bidders on the items.

While the purchases for the Nameoki Volunteer Police were being made, James Keel, then one of only two State Park officers enrolled in the required police training program, was attempting to enlist more volunteers to keep the State Park unit alive.

Keel issued a statement notifying State Park residents that if four more volunteers were not located by Saturday, he would give the State Park patrol car back to Nameoki Township for the Miracle Manor group.

"I just can not see that car sitting here idle for six months or a year," Keel told the Press-Record. He said this week he now lacks only one volunteer to fill the minimum number of six volunteer officers he feels will be needed to reactivate the department, "and I have three good prospects to contact for the other position."

Keel said he felt sure he would be able to have at least six volunteers in the police training course by Saturday.

When Keel first began his police training almost three weeks ago, six volunteers had signed up from State Park, but only he and the Rev. William Young attended the first two weeks.

Persons enrolling by Saturday will be able to make-up missed work for the first two weeks, but no new enrollments will be accepted after Saturday, he was told.

If less than six volunteers are enrolled in the course by Saturday, it may well mark the end of the State Park volunteer unit until spring, Keel said.

The eight-week course must be satisfactorily completed in order for the volunteers to be certified as "supervisors of safety" under Madison County Sheriff John Maers.

Up until last week, the State Park police car remained on the streets, manned by volunteers from the Nameoki unit on Fridays, Saturdays and Tuesday nights.

The car has been idle this week as Keel ordered the department closed due to a rising debt with the district's gasoline supplier.

"We are going to have to start some kind of fund-raising event very quickly. We were left with some old debts by the former policemen and our gasoline bills are getting pretty high," Keel stated.

In addition, the township was told Monday night that the State Park police owe the county $187 for car insurance from Jan. 1, 1976, through July 31, and should now pay $341 for one year of insurance through July of 1977.

"It is my understanding the former police department has put away enough money to pay for the insurance on the car, but that is something I have not had the time to look into yet," Keel said, adding he has only headed the department for two weeks.

Charles Leflore, 52, East St. Louis, was injured when his tractor-trailer and an Illinois Terminal Railroad engine collided on Edwardsville Road at the railroad crossing near 20th Street at 11:30 p.m. Monday.

Leflore's truck was headed toward 20th Street and the train, with Philip South, Edwardsville, as engineer, was west-bound on the tracks when the accident occurred.

There was a question whether the crossing signals operated properly, according to witnesses.

The fire department, an ambulance and a wrecker were called to the scene. Leflore was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for abrasions to his upper left arm and his right cheek. X-rays were taken and he was released.

Radiation hazard

By MARY RICHARDS
Illinois Department of Public Health

About ten years ago, in Ohio, the widow of an elderly physician, while going through her husband's medical supplies, found several small needles about the size of old phonograph needles.

She didn't know what they were—just that they looked valuable. So she put them in her safety deposit box.

Months later, a customer of that same bank, who also happened to be a federal nuclear physicist, was surprised to find, upon entering the safety deposit vault, that his personal radiation detector began "beeping."

With the cooperation of the bank's officials, an intensive radiation surveillance of the vault was conducted, and the widow's safety deposit box was identified as the source.

When she was called to the bank and asked to open the box, it was discovered that the mysterious needles were radium needles, of the type used in cancer therapy. The needles had begun to leak, and had contaminated the entire safety deposit vault. It was a task of epic proportions to destroy and try to replace each and every piece of paper contained in all the safety deposit boxes—money, deeds to homes, family records, anything made of paper.

The vault itself, and everything in it, had to be decontaminated before it was declared safe for use. It cost the bank thousands of dollars and untold inconvenience to customers and bank personnel.

A year or so later, a similar incident occurred in Kentucky. Because of the possibility of such an occurrence in Illinois, the staff of the state health department's Division of Radiological Health recently conducted a "spot check" radiation survey in two Chicago banks. They found 12 safety deposit boxes—four in one bank and eight in the other—emitting radiation.

Fortunately, the radioactivity was not from leaking radium needles...just watches with radium dials. Since this radiation is harmless, no papers had to be destroyed and no decontamination was required. But the chief of the Division of Radiological Health would like to conduct this type of survey in every bank in Illinois.

He feels it is possible that, somewhere in Illinois, the family of a deceased physician has found some valuable looking little needles and placed them in a safety deposit box. Those who want more information about the state's radiological surveillance program may write to: Illinois Department of Public Health, Division of Radiological Health, 535 W. Jefferson St., Springfield, Ill. 62761.

City clerk certification

A new professional certification for municipal clerks — the Illinois registered municipal clerk — has been established in connection with a continuing education program conducted for the clerks at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Its availability was announced at a meeting of municipal clerks by Brandt W. Pryor, Office of Continuing Education and Public Service, UIUC.

Pryor is director of the annual Illinois Municipal Clerk Institute at the university, and the new certification was established through the professionally-based Board of Trustees of that institute.

The U. of I. Municipal Clerk Institute will be held Nov. 1-5 at the Illinois Union.

It is an intensive, week-long residential program of continuing professional education for municipal and deputy municipal clerks.

It is held on three levels. Those attending for their first year are placed in Phase I, second-year participants in Phase II, and third-year or "senior" participants in Phase III.

The first "graduating class" from the expanded three-year institute will be honored this year.

In announcing the new opportunity for certification, Pryor said the purpose "is to assist Illinois clerks in developing and maintaining the high level of administrative expertise needed for the successful operation of our state's increasingly complex municipal governments."

Charles Vandyke, 70, dies

Charles A. Vandyke, 70, of 4861 Warnock Ave., Ill. for four months, died at 5:30 p.m. Monday at the Colonnades Nursing Home.

Born in Hopedale, Ill., he resided here two and one half years.

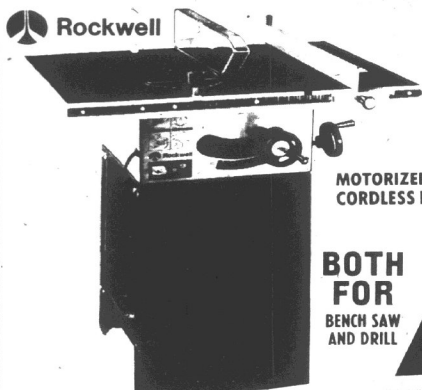

Mr. Vandyke retired in 1970 after 25 years of service at the Caterpillar Co. in Peoria. He was a member of the City Temple Assembly of God Church and also belonged to Union Local 974 in Peoria.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Jennie Vandyke; seven sons, Charles Vandyke of Pekin, Marvin, Jesse, Jackie, and Kenneth Vandyke of Hopedale; Troy Vandyke of Memphis, Tenn., and Larry Vandyke of Delavan, Ill.; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Smith of Canton, Ill., Mrs. Myrtle Juhl of Minier, Ill., and Mrs. Vada Laycock of Pekin; 26 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Late model stock cars to vie Saturday night

Tri-City Speedway will present an annual Gateway Classic late model stock car racing program Saturday evening, starting with time trials at seven o'clock and the first racing event at eight. Following preliminary events on the half-mile dirt oval, a 75-lap feature race will be presented.

Last year, 24 track champions from throughout the Midwest competed, including Tri-City champion Russ Wallace of Arnold, Mo. The event was won by Ed Massie of Arcola, Ill., a driver who had never captured a championship race.

The local speedway will close its 1976 auto racing season on Saturday, Oct. 9, with the rescheduled spring car spectacular which was rained out during the past weekend.

Homecoming Friday; honor dads Oct. 16

Roger Smith, GCHS South athletic coordinator, noted today that the home football contest with Cahokia tomorrow will be the homecoming game and that "dads' night" will be held when Collinsville visits Oct. 16.

The opponents remain the same but the special activities are different than originally indicated on season schedule cards.

On "dads' night" Oct. 16, fathers will wear jerseys with numbers matching those of their sons, and will sit at the sidelines with the athletes.

Grid Braves bow

Coolidge Jr. High was blanked 6-0 yesterday afternoon by Collinsville on the Braves' gridiron in a contest that saw the action mostly contained between the two 20-yard lines. Collinsville scored on a fourth down and 25 yards to go situation with one minute to play when a player picked up the ball after a broken play and ran 55 yards for a touchdown.

HOUSE BROKEN INTO

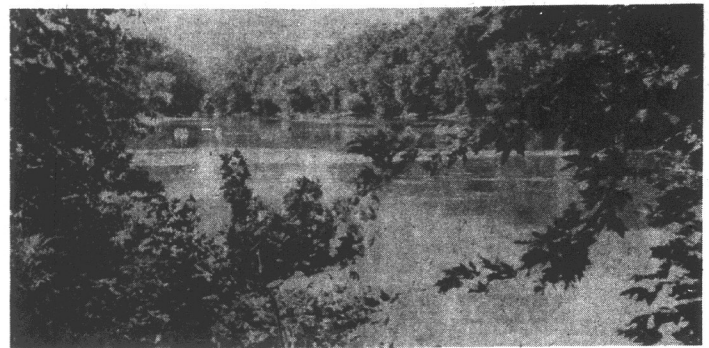

A break-in at the home of Leonore Martin, 2210 Alexander Ave., was discovered at 11:15 a.m. Wednesday. The burglary is believed to have occurred between 4 p.m. and 11 p.m. Tuesday. Bedroom drawers were pulled out and searched and the back door was left open. A list of missing items is to be prepared.

Four daytime burglaries

Four daytime burglaries were reported to the Madison police Tuesday, all with a similar method of operation used by the thieves.

At 3:23 p.m. Leonard Gnojewski, 1605 Fifth St., returned home to find the local door knob twisted off. Nothing was reported taken.

Irene Hackett, 1636 Fifth St., reported she returned home about 3:25 p.m. after leaving at 7:40 a.m. to find the same type of forced entry. A Timex watch and a gold ring with a combined value of $250, were taken. Robin Waggoner, 1906 Rhodes St., reported the same type of entry at 5:19 p.m., but nothing was reported missing. The residence of Andy Besserman, 1915 Rhodes St., was burglarized, according to a report at 5:22 p.m.

Up a lazy Fox River

By JACK BIESTERFELD

PLANO — A pleasant spot for a pleasant afternoon.

That describes Silver Springs State Park south of Plano in Kendall County. The park offers picnicking, fishing and hiking and is only an hour away.

The park is named after a bubbling pool of crystal clear water at the end of the nature trail in the park. The water is cold, but being a spring it never freezes in winter.

The placid waters of the Fox River bound the park on the north and provide one of its main attractions. Fishing from the banks, anglers can net a largemouth and smallmouth bass, bluegill, sunfish, crappie, channel catfish, bullhead, carp, pike, sauger and sucker. Bank fishing and boat fishing is permitted, although the river is too shallow for large boats and motors.

The park contains seven lakes, the largest being 16-acre Silver Springs Lake, which have been stocked with channel catfish, bass, bluegill and an occasional trout. No boats or canoes are allowed on the lakes.

Following the banks of the Fox, the nature trail winds for a mile and a half into the brush and forests of the park. Native wildflowers, songbirds, migratory waterfowl and sometimes deer can be seen along the trail or in a newly-constructed wildlife viewing area at the east end of Big Lake.

The trail follows a deserted service road before entering the forest. The springs spew forth their cool liquid in a small glen in the deep woods. The cold waters are just the place to cool those pinkies after the walk.

The trail starts at the eastern end of the park loop road next to the river. There are at present no signs pointing out the beginning of the trail, but later on signposts spring up to guide the hiker to the springs. The trail returns to the lake by winding around the lakes in the park.

Picnickers should have no trouble finding a table in the park. The Fox View picnic area and another one to the east provide tables and grilles overlooking the river. The Tail Oaks area is also on the main loop road in the park and offers a small shelter.

A second access road to the park lies several hundred yards to the east and leads to the Lake View picnic area, the nature study area and the lakes. Parking, drinking water and adequate parking is offered at all sites.

In winter, the park remains open for sledding, ice fishing and ice skating.

Camping is available only for organized groups at the Cedar Ridge youth camp.

The park had a rough beginning. First opened in 1970 for limited use, the park embarked on an extensive development project. Then in June of 1974 a tornado devastated the area. The park was closed for the summer while cleanup operations were under way. Today there is barely a trace of the damage that remains.

The park comprises 1,314 acres, much of which has been retained as wildlife management areas which will remain free from human encroachment.

Take Illinois 47 south to U.S. 34 just north of Yorkville. Turn west to Plano, then south two miles on Fox River Road to the park.

Hartigan to cut ribbon

Lieut. Gov. Neil Hartigan, Democratic candidate for reelection in the Nov. 2 election, will cut the ribbon to open Democratic headquarters in Edwardsville at 3 p.m. Saturday.

Hartigan is to speak at 12:45 p.m. to members of the Glassblowers Union at Alton, and is to appear at a jamboree sponsored by the Association for Illinois Student Government at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville before attending the Edwardsville event.

GC man named in information; assault charged

Howard L. Wallace, 27, of the 2800 block of Madison Avenue, was named in an informational document filed Monday by the Madison County state's attorney's office alleging armed violence and aggravated assault.

CASH, JEWELRY TAKEN
An undetermined quantity of cash, silver dollars and half dollars, a $10 gold piece and a John F. Kennedy memorial necklace were among items stolen during a burglary at the home of Lillian Phillips of Edwardsville Road, which was discovered at 4:10 p.m. Wednesday. Several rooms, closets and drawers were ransacked and a second floor bedroom door, which had been locked, was kicked open. Entry to the house was gained by forcing the door knob and tearing a chain lock loose.

Mitchell man charged

William B. Earhart, 24, of 31 Edwards Court, Mitchell, was arrested at his mobile home about 5:15 p.m. Tuesday and was charged with unlawful use of a weapon and not having a firearm owner's identification card.

His mother, Lenia G. Earhart, who lives at the same address, said she and her son had a disagreement and her son got a shotgun and ordered her to sit down and keep quiet or he would use it on her, she alleged. She said her sister, Margaret Jones, started to enter the mobile home and Earhart allegedly grabbed a revolver and forced her to go back outside.

Later, Earhart went into the bedroom and locked the door. Mrs. Earhart ran to her sister's house at Sunny Shores Mobile Home Park and called sheriff's deputies, she reported. While she was running away, she heard a shotgun blast fired from Earhart's bedroom window, she alleged.

When deputies arrived at the mobile home, they alleged Earhart appeared to be intoxicated and yelled out a window he was not going to be taken by police.

A shot was fired from the trailer about 5:06 p.m. and Earhart appeared at a front window with a pistol in his hand.

Authorities are attempting to determine why a burglar alarm at Pete & Mary's Tavern, 2009 Lincoln Ave., failed to activate when the front and rear doors were pried between 2 a.m. and 7 a.m. Wednesday.

The rear door was found open and the interior was discovered ransacked when the owner opened the tavern. Known missing is $350 cash from the cash registers, about 16 to 20 quarts of whiskey, all the gum and candy from the racks, and a portable radio.

There was extensive damage to both doors and the fronts of the cash register drawers were destroyed.

Jail grant sought

A resolution authorizing Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City to apply for a grant of up to $3 million toward construction of a new $7 million Madison County Jail was received approval from the Madison County Board.

The grant is being sought under the Local Public Works in Capital Development and Investment Act of 1976.

Man charged in store incident

Alphonso Heard, 25, St. Louis, was charged with disorderly conduct in connection with an incident during which $173 disappeared from a cash register at the A&P Food Store, 20th Street and Madison Avenue about 6:35 p.m. Tuesday.

A clerk alleged one man walked to an unoccupied checkout counter, opened a cash register and removed money. Another man is believed to have walked out of the store with the money after it was passed to him.

The clerk saw the theft occur and screamed and store officials apprehended one man in the store.

M-V Rotary Club praised for fun, fellowship and service

Rotary begins with good fellowship, according to Rotary District 646 Governor Robert H. Caldwell, Jacksonville, who spoke at the Wednesday noon meeting of the Madison-Venice Rotary Club in the Madison Recreation Center.

"I like to see a lot of good fun and fellowship at a Rotary Club meeting and you certainly have that here," Caldwell said.

"Rotary begins with fellowship and service. A club like this can have a tremendous influence on the community."

"The community service of this club is excellent. Your work with youth and interest in bettering the community in general are outstanding.

"For a Rotary Club to take on the United Way drive in their community is a tremendous service project."

"Before the meeting here I met with your president 'Mick' Strange and the other officers. The concern expressed by them in working to improve the whole Madison and Venice area is to be lauded."

"This club is following the national theme of 'service' to the utmost. You are truly a service oriented club."

"I would like to invite the members of the club to participate in the District Institute in Washington, Ill., on Saturday, Oct. 30. The Washington Rotary Club is hosting the event and has invited every club to send five members as their guests," Caldwell said.

The Rotary governor reviewed progress in world community service and the Rotary Foundation programs.

Caldwell is a professional engineer and became a Rotarian in 1947. He is the owner and president of the Grizzly Corp., a Jacksonville manufacturing firm and currently is secretary-treasurer of the State Mechanical Contractors, Inc. Active in civic affairs, Caldwell has served as vice-president of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce and twice was president of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce.

As a youth he was an Eagle Scout.

Caldwell and his wife, Joan, have one son and two daughters.

Rotary President Strange announced that on Friday, Oct. 22, at the Marriott Hotel in St. Louis, Rotary International President Robert A. Manchett II, will speak. There are 16,943 Rotary Clubs, and 791,500 members in 353 districts throughout the world.

The Rev. Walter Walters of the Bethel AME church and J. Richard Hooks, counselor for the Madison Coordinated Youth

STEAL TIRES, RIMS
Two spare tires and rims were stolen from two trailers parked on the Lindsey Trucking Co. lot at 17th Street and Grand Avenue between Friday and 2:30 p.m. Tuesday. The loss was estimated at $160.

Services, were introduced by Rotarian Jack Lee as potential new members.

A moment of silent prayer was held in memory of Lawrence A. "Larry" Falkes who died Friday. He was a past president of the Rotary Club.

"When Larry passed on, Rotary lost a fine member and the world lost an outstanding man," Strange said.

New school laws signed

Gov. Daniel Walker on Tuesday signed the five bills passed by the late summer and early fall special session of the legislature, providing $50 million more in state aid to education this fiscal year and speeding up payment of money owed the state by large businesses to finance the additional aid to education.

Highlights of the changes in the school aid legislation are:

—Assuring that no school district loses state aid this year because of formula revisions.

—Allowing school districts (chiefly in Chicago area suburbs) to increase local school support, subject to referendum, without losing state aid, in effect eliminating a cutback in the old formula.

—Forgiving $23 million of the penalty against the Chicago school system for closing early, and making state aid in the future directly proportionate to the number of days (of the required 175) on which schools are open.

—For the first time including pupil transportation taxes in the local support credited to school districts in making state aid claims, a provision said to chiefly benefit Downstate school districts.

—And reducing the qualifying tax rates for state aid in unit and elementary districts, a provision that chiefly benefits larger Downstate city districts.

Gov. Walker said, "Now school boards all over the state will know exactly how much money they will be receiving this school year. The certainty of the funds should permit the settlement of disputes, and end speculation and conjecture about money."

"Everyone—school boards, principals, teachers—involved in the education process now can focus their attention on quality education and the school kids themselves."

"The school aid formula still needs improvements, but this year we have moved to a more equitable formula and we have eased some of the burdens which caused precipitous drops in state aid."

School aid revisions and funding were supported by the state Board of Education, chaired by Jack Witkowski, and State Superintendent of Education Joseph M. Cronin. The bills signed are as follows:

House Bill 1, Sixth Special Session. The bill revises the state distributive aid formula for education in these ways:

(1) Locally imposed transportation taxes can now be counted by school districts in making state aid claims, enabling many districts to qualify for more state aid without any increase in local taxes.

(2) The tax rollback requirement is eliminated, enabling 80 school districts, mostly in Chicago suburbs, to tax above the maximum rates for state aid—if approved by referendum—without losing state aid payments.

(3) The maximum qualifying tax rate is lowered for unit districts from $3 per $100 of assessed valuation to $2.90 and for elementary districts from $1.95 to $1.90, enabling many districts to qualify for more state aid without increasing local taxes.

(4) In the next fiscal year, districts may compute attendance by the average of the three previous years' weighted average daily attendance. This provision is intended to ease the "adverse precipitous decline in state aid caused by declining attendance."

In addition, the bill reduces the penalty for closing schools from one per cent of the year's total state aid per day short of 176 days of school to 1-176th penalty per day, beginning in the school year just ended.

It also provides that each district will receive at least as much state aid this year under the new formula as it would have received under the previous formula at the approved appropriation level (i.e., the districts are held harmless from the changes in the formula).

House Bill 2. An appropriation of $50 million for additional state aid, half for the general state aid formula and half for the "hold harmless" provision of the new bill.

House Bill 3. Requires corporations to file annual corporate income tax returns on March 15 instead of April 15.

The shift of the filing deadline from April to March will improve cash flow but has no impact on the fiscal 1976-77 total revenue.

The bill also requires employers withholding income taxes from employee paychecks to submit payments to the state up to four times per month instead of monthly, if the amount withheld equals or exceeds $500 on the 7th, 15th, 22nd or last day of the month.

The change in payment schedule affects about 4,000 employers—the largest two per cent of employers in the state. It will increase the state's revenue this fiscal year by $30 million, without affecting future years' revenues, state officials said.

These changes make the collection dates for corporate income taxes and employee withholding taxes owed to the state consistent with the federal collection schedules.

House Bill 4. Establishes a penalty for enforcement of the schedule for employers to pay withheld payroll taxes to the state. The penalty for failure to meet the schedule is five per cent of the delinquent amount, the same as the federal penalty.

House Bill 5. Effective Nov. 1, speeds up payment into the state treasury of sales taxes owed to the state by the largest retailers in Illinois.

The bill requires that companies owing an average of $25,000 per month or more pay their owed sales taxes to the state four times monthly instead of in one lump sum at the end of the following month. This provision will result in about $80 million additional revenue in this fiscal year.

Starting next July 1, the bill extends the speed-up requirement to all retailers owing an average of $10,000 in sales taxes monthly (about $2,400,000 in annual sales) which will result in a revenue gain of about $28 million for fiscal 1978.

Neither of the acceleration provisions will affect revenue growth in subsequent fiscal years.

Less than 3,000 retail firms out of the state's more than 140,000 retail firms are affected by the speed-up in paying taxes owed, both at the $25,000 threshold and at the $10,000 threshold.

The bill revising the school aid formula was passed in the form recommended by Gov. Walker when he used his amendatory veto power to return a similar bill last month, he commented Tuesday.

The new bill makes the change in the penalty computation permanent instead of a one-year provision that would have amounted to special legislation.

The amount of speeded-up taxes was less than the governor sought.

The effect of the penalty change is to forgive the Chicago school district $23 million of the $53.3 million penalty assessed for closing schools 16 days early last spring.

Any school district which closes early in the future will lose state aid only in proportion to the number of days closed, instead of the higher penalty of one per cent per day closed.

East Madison alleys to be blacktopped

All alleys in East Madison, east of McCormick Avenue, are to be blacktopped by the city of Madison, with the cost of the materials to be reimbursed by Nameki Township under an agreement reached Monday night.

Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison attended Monday night's Nameki Township Board of Auditors meeting and offered to have the city street department use its equipment and manpower to blacktop the alleys in East Madison if the township would agree to reimburse the cost of the blacktop material for the portions of East Madison which are in Nameki Township and within the city limits of Madison.

Sasyk said the cost will not exceed $4,500. The township auditors noted the funds were not available under the present fiscal year budgets and Sasyk said he would agree to blacktop the alleys immediately if the township would agree to appropriate up to $4,500 in the next fiscal year's budgets.

A motion was made to assure that sum from next year's federal revenue sharing budget and was approved unanimously.

Sasyk noted all of the streets in East Madison are now in good condition.

Most blacktopped and the others recently reconditioned.

Picnic Sunday to honor Lucco

Nick Hamilos, campaign manager and chairman of the "Citizens for Lucco" committee, has announced that a fund-raising picnic honoring State Representative Joe E. Lucco will be held 1 to 6 p.m. Sunday at the Quercus Grove School park between Edwardsville and Hamel on Carpenter Road.

William Redmond, speaker of the Illinois House, will be the main speaker. The public is invited and tickets are $7 each, including barbecue, "trimmings" and drinks.

Metric system a must by 1980, speaker says

Induction of new members and information concerning the metric system were highlights of the September dinner meeting of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club at Charlie's Restaurant.

Dr. Robert Williams, professor at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, introduced the metric system to club members by explaining it is the accepted international language of measurement.

The educator said the United States has held out in converting from its English standard of measurement, but recently has experienced an awakening to the necessity of conversion.

Primary reasons for the change, Dr. Williams said, are the need of a common system of measurement in exports, imports and international air flights, among other areas of commerce; the simplicity of learning the system; and the reduction of expense for the government to maintain its personnel at military bases around the world without having to educate its employees in a dual system.

Dr. Williams cited programs being initiated in schools throughout the nation to familiarize students with the metric system. Elementary schools are using both the English standard and the metric, but many high schools will use only the metric system, he said.

Federal authorities have set 1980 for implementing the metric system into all phases of U.S. society, Dr. Williams said.

A film strip, "The Metric System Meets the Inchworm," was shown, and members participated in a demonstration of metric measurements which proved humorous.

Dr. Williams presently is coordinating adult education classes on the metric system. He reported an evening class is being presented at Grigsby Junior High School here and anyone interested in attending is invited to contact SIUE for further information.

The guest speaker was introduced by Miss Annelien Smith, chairman of the club's Individual Development Program. She announced a new course has been developed and will start tonight at 7:30 in the new Salvation Army Center on East 23rd Street.

Mrs. Sylvia Wright, president, was in charge of the business session. She urged members to attend the BPW fall district meeting, set Oct. 10 at the Stratford Hotel, Alton, and a "goody golf" outing this weekend at Timber Lake, Staunton.

An induction ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Judith McCann, membership chairman, for several new members, including Shirley Motes, Jean Zaring, Anna Mae Gates, Adele Thomas and Tina Thomas.

Senator Cecil Partridge, president of the Illinois Senate, will be guest speaker for the annual "Legislative Dinner," set for Oct. 20 at Trinity Hall in Madison. Mrs. Rosalie Portelli, dinner chairman, announced.

GC ice rink opens Sunday for season

The Wilson Park ice rink will open its 10th skating season at 1 p.m. Sunday, it was announced today by Granite City Park District officials.

During the past nine years, a total of 350,000 adults and youngsters have skated at the local rink and its popularity is expected to be maintained again this season.

In December, the park district will make the final payment on the $475,000 bond issue that was passed by voters on Dec. 18, 1966. Harold Brown, park district superintendent, reported.

Admission prices to the rink will remain the same as last year, and a total of 10 scheduled public sessions is planned each week at the facility.

Admission fees for each session to residents of the park district will be 50 cents for children through high school age and $1 for adults.

Non-residents will pay $1 for children through high school and $1.50 for adults.

Starting Sunday, skating sessions will be scheduled at the following hours:

Tuesday through Friday — 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Saturdays — 1 p.m. until 3:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. until 9:30 p.m.

Sundays — 1 p.m. until 3:30 p.m.; 6 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.; and an adult-only session for those 18 years and older from 8:30 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Special sessions are set for Wednesday mornings from 9:30 until 11:30.

Season passes for park district residents with ID cards will cost $35, and residents with ID cards also may purchase book tickets for daily admission at reduced rates. Brown said.

Children's tickets will be 10 for $4.50 and adult tickets will cost 10 for $9.

The "Learn to Skate" program will start Saturday, Oct. 9, with two sessions each Saturday for six weeks. The hours will be 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.; and 1:30 p.m. until 2:30 p.m. Only 15 skaters will be accepted for each class and the Woman is arrested

Jessie Ruth Manson, 20, of 910 W. Madison St., Madison, was arrested in her former husband's hospital room at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 5:35 p.m. Monday and was charged with disorderly conduct.

Wayne Manson, 31, of 1038 Logan St., Venice, alleged she and he had a disagreement and that she displayed a knife and attempted to cut him. He yelled for hospital security personnel, who found no knife when they arrived.

Granite City police said they ordered Mrs. Manson to remove her wig and allegedly discovered a knife under it.

Mrs. Manson was released on a notice to appear in court at a future date, despite a charge against her now pending in Madison County Circuit Court.

She is alleged to have stabbed Mrs. Dorothy L. White, 30, of 172 Viola Jones Homes, Venice, with a knife July 13.

Mrs. Manson was named in an informational document from the Madison County state's attorney's office charging aggravated battery and was freed on a $500 cash bond awaiting trial.

Federal pay hike Cambodian attitude changed toward U.S.

President Gerald Ford yesterday signed a pay increase averaging 4.83 per cent, effective Oct. 1, for 2,600,000 federal civilian and military employees. Total cost is $2.5 billion.

The increases have no effect on the pay of members of Congress, federal judges or bureau officials earning more than $37,800 yearly.

He vetoed a $56 billion social aid and education bill as too costly.

The President said that with Congress hoping to adjourn Friday, he will act on public works job legislation by then if legislators meanwhile vote to continue federal revenue sharing for states, cities and counties.

During the Johnson and Kennedy administrations relationships between Cambodia and the United States were good, according to Dean Doris Croizer of Lindenwood College who spoke Tuesday to the noon meeting of the Granite City Rotary Club in the YMCA.

Dean Croizer was one of five educational advisors teaching Cambodians how to be village teachers in the jungle in the 1960's. She expressed her belief that the five Americans had a tremendous influence on the people.

Dean Croizer told the Rotarians that since the Cambodian war and due to the present government's attitude toward Americans, she has been out to continue keeping in touch with her friends there for fear they would get into serious trouble by being friendly with an American.

The dean also outlined background on the college that will be 150 years old in the spring.

Four years ago the school became coeducational.

Rotarian President Steve Bristol reported that there were only eight tickets left for the Camelot Auction on Saturday.

Delay lock-dam vote until early next year

Reacting to the threat of a filibuster against replacement of the aging Alton Locks and Dam 26, the U.S. Senate on Tuesday removed the project from pending appropriations. But early 1977 consideration was pledged.

The inaction prevents the Army Corps of Engineers from proceeding at this time with detailed planning for a new facility in the Mississippi River two miles south of the existing Alton dam. Railroads and two environmental groups have opposed the $400 million lock and dam replacement.

Repairs on the 38-year-old structure are estimated to cost $7 million during 1977.

Also deferred until next year is the question of whether to impose a user fee to recover costs of river projects.

Mrs. Washington, 71, dies

Mrs. Catherine Washington, 71, of Venice Homes, died Monday at St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Pearl Thomas, Mrs. Estella Washington of Alton, Mrs. Betty Jean Clark, Mable Washington and Mrs. Ruthie Joe Jackson of Chicago, and a stepson, Willie Washington of Gary, Ind. Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at St. John Baptist Church, Hughes, Ark.

More buildings to be razed

In a continuing effort to clean up the city of Venice, City Attorney Harry E. Hartman was instructed by the council Tuesday night to prepare a resolution calling bids for demolition of six structures deemed unsafe.

The resolution listing the buildings is to be adopted at the Tuesday, Oct. 12, council meeting.

Police report for August showed a total of 20 adults and 14 juveniles arrested for a total of 34 arrests, with $372 in fines paid.

A letter from Mrs. Lola Cicio, school crossing guard, was read to the council in which she thanked the city street department for painting new white safety lane lines.

First Ward Alderman Harry Buente presided at the meeting in the absence of Mayor William M. Ebersold who is a patient at the Missouri Pacific Hospital in St. Louis, undergoing a series of tests.

BREAK INTO HOME Entry to the home of Margie Miller, 2206 Dewey Ave., was gained by removing a screen from a rear porch window and prying open the door into the kitchen. The rear door also was pried in an unsuccessful attempt to open it. The victim is to prepare a list of items found missing. A neighbor reported seeing three boys, about 15 to 17 years old, acting suspiciously on the sidewalk near the Miller home before the break-in was discovered.

DOUBLE WEDDING. Mr. and Mrs. Gary Joseph Range, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Joseph Gruber, who were married at St. Peter Catholic Church, St. Charles, Mo. The brides are formerly Miss Mary Jane Schneider, left, and Miss Jean Marie Schneider, both daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schneider, St. Charles, Mo. Both grooms are Granite City residents.

Couples exchange vows in double ceremony

Miss Jean Marie Schneider became the bride of Philip Joseph Gruber at a meeting of the United Presbyterian Women Tuesday night at the First United Presbyterian Church.

The bride's father, Richard Paynec and Father Kopf officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony.

The brides are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schneider of St. Charles, Mo.

Philip Gruber is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Gruber, 1105

Twenty-fourth St. and Gary Range is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Range, 2666 Washington Ave.

Attendants for Mr. and Mrs. Gruber were Miss Molly O'Brien, a cousin of the bride and Tim Gruber, brother of the groom. The newlyweds are residing in St. Louis.

Miss Carolyn Enke of St. Charles and Robert Chambers of Champaign, Ill., served as maid of honor and best man for Mr. and Mrs. Range, who are now residing in Granite City.

Presbyterian Women elect

A program on flower arranging using dried flowers in fall hues was presented by Mrs. Betty Trough at a meeting of the United Presbyterian Women Tuesday night at the First United Presbyterian Church.

The guest speaker and her husband, Bob Trough, own and operate a flower shop on Pontoon Road.

A dessert luncheon was served prior to the program and followed by a business session when officers for the ensuing year were elected.

Those to serve for the year are Mrs. Louise Orr, president; Mrs. Kathryn Smith, vice-president; Mrs. Corrine McCullum, secretary and Mrs. Helen Johnson, treasurer and orphan contact.

Mrs. Johnson submitted a new budget which was approved and Mrs. Virginia Rickert discussed the distribution of proceeds expected from the church bazaar set for Nov. 6.

A discussion on the American Bible Society was led by Mrs. Ila Maxton. She said the society has established a new reader service costing $300 and members may join the Monthly Bible Club for $3 a year and the Bibles will then be sent were needed overseas.

Clothing is needed for the Nearly New Clothing Center, a project of the Quad-City Church Women United and also for nursing homes it was announced by Mrs. Rickert. Mrs. Dee Roberts reported 77 infant layettes had been given to needy families during the summer.

The president reminded the group of a new event at the church to be known as Church Family Nights beginning on Wednesday, Oct. 6. The weekly meetings will be preceded by a 6:30 p.m. potluck supper she added.

Teachers and mothers feted

Stallings School teachers and room mothers were guests of honor at a "get acquainted" party on Tuesday night held in the school gymnasium arranged by Mrs. Judy Davis.

Mrs. Davis used liberty bells and arrangements of autumn flowers to decorate the tables and presented each guest with a liberty bell name tag to be worn during the evening.

Refreshments included potato chips, dips, punch, coffee and donuts. The evening prize was won by Miss Sally Dehner, a second grade teacher.

Teachers and room mothers present included Mrs. Mary Jane Davis, Mrs. Barbara Chaney, Mrs. Janet Simpson, Mrs. Billie Meyer, Mrs. Carol Relleke, Miss Lynne Davis, Mrs. Janet Smith, Mrs. Stella Harnett, Miss Pat Patterson, Mrs. Judith Wasson, Mrs. Shurmette Maier, Mrs. Jeanne Luehmann, Mrs. Dee Stroyanoff, Mrs. Frankie Laird, Mrs. Ruth Bauer, Mrs. Wilma Bowen, Mrs. Audrey Ribbing, Mrs. Sheila McCauley, Mrs. Brenda Brown, Judy Kopchak, Mrs. Linda Boswell, Mrs. Alice Murphy, Mrs. Deloris Scott, Mrs. Debbie Wofford, Mrs. Ruth Jorgenson, Mrs. Phyllis Meyer, Ray Seaman, Robert Anderson, Mrs. Connie Holkamp, Joan Patton, Hazel Bogard, Ralph Craycraft, Mrs. Yvonne Counts and the school principal, Edward Biznek.

'Latter Days' at New Life Center

The "Latter Days" gospel singing group from St. Louis will be featured at the New Life Singing Center, East 25th and August streets, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The public is invited to attend.

No admission will be charged to hear the program, which also will include music by the "Unbroken Circle" singers from the host center.

Norman Fenton, director, said area churches are being invited to participate in an evangelistic crusade, scheduled Oct. 18 to Oct. 23, at the New Life Center.

Secretaries conference set

The Granite City Association of Educational Secretaries opened its season of meetings Monday night with a "salad luncheon" and business session at Granite City High School North.

Plans were completed for several members to attend the Illinois Association of Educational Secretaries fall conference on Oct. 14, 15, and 16th in Decatur, Ill.

A budget for the 1976-77 year was discussed and approved by the membership.

The next business meeting will be held on Oct. 25 at Logan School with "Officer Friendly" as the guest speaker.

Those present were Betty

Williams, Phyllis Pickrel, Frieda Andrews, Shirley Brown, Arlene Haldeman, Dorothy Larner, Martha Rochester, Barbara Larner, Ethel Weiss, Lucille Caban, Martha Katzman, Marge King, Irene Williams, Dorothy Luckert, Helen Fowler, Wanda Rosales, Linda Miles, Sonya Olanesian, Lucy Stucke, Dottie Mount.

Area PTA Council hear GC educators

Dale C. Rea, assistant to the superintendent of Granite City Schools and Owen E. Humphrey, curriculum coordinator for the local school district, were the guest speakers at the first meeting of the 1976-77 year of the Granite City Area Council of Parent-Teacher Association. Rea outlined the school board's position on various subjects relating to the students and Humphrey spoke on the current curriculum. Both speakers answered parents' questions after their talks. Grade school student pictures will be taken and returned by Christmas they added.

A pot luck dinner at 6:30 p.m. preceded the meeting which was conducted by Mrs. Dorothy Baker, president.

She welcomed the 43 members and guests and introduced Jack Mulach, principal of Maryville School and chairman of the Tri-Cities Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Mulach explained the swine flu program and said the tentative dates, in November for the inoculations has been postponed for the present time.

Other reports were submitted by committee chairmen to include Ed Gowna, principal of Lake School, who announced a television program on "The Puzzle Children" which deals with learning disabilities will be aired on Channel 9 at 8 p.m., Oct. 19.

Mrs. Karen Hutchings and Mrs. Phyllis Gorrell, co-chairmen of hospitality, Mrs. Brenda Withers, cultural arts and scholarship chairman, Mrs. Olivia Parrish, juvenile protection chairman and Mrs. Julie Gates a member of the Citizen Advisory Council all gave a progress report on their committees.

Robert Kirgin, legislation chairman, spoke on the current bills now before the state legislature and how they will effect the Granite City area.

District Director, Mrs. Phyllis Currins of Alton, chose the PTA insurance as her topic and also urged members to attend an all day workshop set for Nov. 9 in Mount Vernon.

Mrs. Parrish was appointed to represent the council at the Youth Consultation Committee which meets the first Thursday of each month at the Board of Education office from 9 to 10:30 a.m.

The next council meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 18 at Webster School.

Golden Agers mark birthdays

The Kirkpatrick Golden Age Circle Club met Tuesday at the Kirkpatrick recreation hall. Vice president Caroline Lux opened the meeting with a silent prayer for the Clara Earmey family, whose son just died. The group then repeated the Lord's prayer and the pledge to the flag.

Reports were given by the secretary Lumeta Durbin and the treasurer Peggy Gibbons. Mrs. Lux, the sunshine chairman, reported sending cards to those ill, Vina Law, Celia Davis, Reba Groves, May, Findley, and Ethel Seymour.

Grace Paddock thanked all the ladies who participated in the anniversary of the Senior Citizens Center and Charity Days.

Those honored on their birthdays were Grace Paddock, Peggy Gibbons, Jewell Patterson, Ida Rankin, Martin Schulte, and Nettie Coon.

One new member was welcomed to the club, Loreta Wiskocil.

Games were played and prizes won by Eleanor Patterson, Art Rankin, Art Lindner, Frank Harris, Ida Cassel, Loreta Wiskocil, and Rose Elmore.

Next meeting to be a pot luck at 12 noon on Oct. 12.

MR. AND MRS. KEVIN M. RIGGS who were married in an afternoon ceremony conducted at the City Hall, Granite City. Formerly Miss Barbara Jean Tooley, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Tooley of St. Louis.

Barbara J. Tooley weds Kevin Michael Riggs

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Barbara Jean Tooley and Kevin Michael Riggs at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 24 at the City Hall in Granite City.

The double ring service was performed by Judge Merlin Hiscott.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Tooley, 10428 Durness Drive, St. Louis. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Riggs, 2028 Lindell Blvd.

Attending the couple as maid of honor and best man were Miss Sherry Huecker and Ronald Daugherty.

A reception at 6:30 in the evening was held at the 300 Room of Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl.

The former Miss Tooley attended North County Technical School in St. Louis and is now employed at Joyce Lane Clothing, St. Louis.

The groom attended Granite City Schools and works as a painter for the Raintree Apartments in St. Louis. They are residing in Granite City.

Madison Mothers Club convenes

Porter Cawley and Robert Barnhart, principals of Harris and Louis Baer Schools, respectively, were special guest speakers at the first meeting of the 1976-77 season of the Madison Mothers Club.

They gave suggestions and ideas for school funds and how they should be distributed not only for entertainment but also for educational equipment and materials.

Principal Cawley also suggested a course in parent training for Madison parents be sponsored by the club.

Other guests were Mrs. Earline McCormick and Mrs. Sara Polk, both of the Teachers Corp. Mrs. Polk explained the program of the Teachers Corp and offered the club members a course in the metric system which will be held in the Harris School gym. They also showed a film entitled, "Ciper in Snow."

Mrs. Karen Purkale, president, presided and after the opening prayer introduced officers for the ensuing year to include Mrs. Ericka Kellems, vice-president; Mrs. Mary Ann Dollar, treasurer and Mrs. Judy Ziesel, secretary.

Business discussed included employing a baby sitter on club meeting night so more mothers can attend and also when they attend the metric course.

The group also agreed to collect Post box tops to purchase gym equipment for the elementary schools. The class which collects the largest number of box tops will receive a special prize.

Other fund raising projects discussed were the plant sale set for Oct. 15 and the Harris School Carnival to be held on Nov. 19.

The president reported an award of $15 will be given to the class with the most parents in attendance and the September prize went to Mrs. Catherine Hildebrand's first grade class.

Refreshments were served to Lonnie Layton, Laverne Harris, Jeannie Dubray, Maureen Johnson, Mary Jane Walton, Willie Allen, Helen Jacks, Rose Lawrence, Bobbie Booker, Pat Westwood, JoAnn Gushfield, Julian Narvez, Margaret Amisch, Joyce Gushfield, JoAnn Wagner, Lona Hurbert, Rose Rife, Margaret Mayes, Doris Kneff, Alberta Fisher, Opal Foster.

Glik's marks 75th year

By VALERIE EVENEDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer
Glik's Department Store, the only independently owned department store chain left in the nation, celebrated its 75th anniversary at a service awards dinner party at Charlie's Restaurant.

The chain, which will expand to 13 department stores when a second store in Belleville opens Oct. 24, also has two specialty shops and a $2 million shopping center development in Highland.

At the celebration dinner, Mrs. Morris Glik, widow of the founder, presented awards to employees who have long service with the locally based firm.

Receiving special congratulations were Carl Spohr, who has spent 51 years working for the Glik's chain, and Joe Richardson, whose service record is 50 years. Each was presented a gold digital watch by Mrs. Glik.

Also accorded honors were Fay Little, who is retiring from the company after 32 years of service, and Doris Wilson, retiring after 25 years. Both women received gold necklaces.

Gold bracelets attached with discs, inscribed with the number of years each has been employed by the firm, were presented to Nettie Spohr, 33 years, Neil Talley, 26 years, Dave Leipziger, 24 years, Mary Stanfill, 22 years, Juanita Rosenberg, 21 years, and Dorothy Steed and Helen Richardson, both 20 years.

Glik's employees with service of 10 years and over also received bracelets. They include Millie Sherman, Edna Stith, Virginia Lawson, Shirley White, Jennie Ross, Edith Wotner, Mildred Stanek and Mary Baumberger.

Joe Glik, president of Glik's,

MRS. MORRIS GLIK, widow of the founder of Glik's Department Stores, presents gold digital watches to two long-time employees whose combined service exceeds 100 years. Carl Spohr, left, has spent 51 years with the company, and Joe Richardson, 50 years. The presentations were made at a dinner party celebrating the firm's 75th year.

Department Stores, said Wednesday the second Belleville store will open Sunday, Oct. 24, in the Carlyle Shopping Center. The first Glik's store in Belleville is located in the Bellevue Plaza Shopping Center.

The company also has stores in Granite City (Bellevue Village Shopping Center), where its administrative offices are situated; East Alton, Cahokia, Edwardsville, Alton, Godfrey, Highland, Mascoutah, New Athens, Glasgow Village Shopping Center, St. Louis, and the original Madison store.

For 53 years the sole store owned by the firm was located in Madison, where the original business was opened by Morris Glik in 1901 while he was a teenager.

The business grew with the area and in 1923 he moved to a new 15,000 square-foot building he had constructed on Madison Avenue at Third Street. Glik's first store prospered until the depression hit in 1929. During the early 1930s, many independently operated stores failed, but Morris Glik stayed in business by putting $15,000 a year of his own money into the store and drawing no salary for nearly three years.

Today, after 75 years of operation, Glik's has never closed a store, Joe Glik said. During the depression years, Morris Glik extended credit to many of his customers who were out of work.

"To this day, those people remember the help he gave them in times of need," Joe Glik said.

Joe Glik began working at his father's store during vacations while in school. His father died in 1945 while Joe was serving in the U.S.

Navy and for a period of time, until Joe left the Navy and finished college, his mother, Mrs. Elsie Glik, operated the Madison store.

After graduating from college, Joe took over the store's management. Between 1961 and 1963, he carried out a modernization program at the Madison store that included extensive interior and exterior renovations.

The improvements resulted in an upswing in the store's business, and its volume grew to a half-million dollars by 1963. Before the remodeling project, Glik's never charged customers for alterations on women's clothing, nor for extending credit.

Because of the expense of modernization, fees had to be charged in these areas for the first time. Joe Glik said the new policy reduced the alteration department's operational costs by two-thirds and the store started to gain about $10,000 a year in credit charges.

A free service Glik's still maintains today is gift-wrapping, which is increasingly popular with customers, new ones and long-time, especially when seeking gifts at Christmas, for birthdays, showers, anniversaries and other special occasions.

Joe Glik works on a principle he discovered some years ago that expansion instead of status-quo is vital in the retail business.

"I believe that the independent retailer must expand to other locations if he is in an established business district and has a volume that remains about the same."

"Every year the expenses of conducting a retail business increase and unless your volume increases along with the expenses, it is just a question of time until your operation will be unprofitable."

Shopping centers are developed around new housing and the potential of young buyers who live in the housing, Glik said.

"The only thing to do is to get out into new shopping centers with stores of your own, before you find yourself strangled by mounting expenses or slipping volume."

Joe Glik applied that principle in 1954 when costs were rising and more volume was needed.

He opened the Glik's store in the Bellevue Village Shopping Center. By the end of 1958, he opened three more stores in area shopping centers.

"By opening another store, extra volume is gained," Glik said. "The trick is not to pay too much store rental."

"Most space we rent for much less a square foot than rental in some of the new shopping center malls. By opening in shopping centers instead of large malls, we are able to operate at a lower overhead than many stores."

Choosing the right location is important, Glik said. He follows one simple policy in this regard — try to keep within 25 miles of the Granite City store.

One reason is to keep down cost of transportation so that supervisors and buyers can more easily get from one store to another.

But Joe Glik's prime motive for staying within this radius is another good business practice.

"Glik's has been known in the area for 75 years. People who originally were customers in Madison and Granite City have moved into other areas and in those areas Glik's stores have been opening. Where the store name already is known, you make instant customers when you open."

The size of a store is equally important, Glik believes. Most Glik stores have about 5,000 square feet, although several have been expanded to between 7,000 to 8,000 feet.

These stores carry a wide line of brand names, but only a limited quantity of some items is stocked to conserve space. This gives the customers the sense of buying something unique, and the limited quantity can be replaced almost immediately, as specials are ordered from the main store in Granite City. Deliveries are made each day to other stores from the central facility, Glik said.

Most purchases are made through a New York purchasing office, which places orders for the locally based firm. The same office buys for a large chain operation.

Glik said he is able to purchase wholesale at the same prices as giant chains because of federal law that forbids discrimination in price structure because of size.

Purchases also are made in St. Louis at shows four times a year, and from representatives of companies who visit the stores.

"Glik's grew because of quality merchandise, much of which is nationally known brands. And, as a general rule, Glik's is less expensive than most stores," Joe Glik said.

Of equal importance to Glik's operations is "good customer-employee relationship. Most of the employees are from the local area. Some of the branch managers have been chosen from our salespeople," Joe Glik said.

In an era when many smaller stores are crumbling in the face of competition from the giant chains, Glik's prospers.

Confidence in his methods and in the future has brought Joe Glik from the point of expanding to a second store in 1954 to opening 11 new department stores in the intervening years.

He hopes to be adding an average of a store a year to his company and so far he seems to be hitting "1,000."

Joe Glik wants to open stores in the Collinsville, Bethalto and Hillsboro areas.

The Northtown Shopping Center at Highland is a $2 million Glik development. Beside the Glik store, it has a Kroger store, two restaurants, a clothing store and several smaller shops, including Judy's Gift Shop and Northtown Decorating.

A paint and wallpaper store, both Glik enterprises and the first one named after a daughter.

The company president expresses confidence in the future of business in the United States and the immediate area.

"Nationally, the economy started to improve last fall, but it came a little later for us, not until January," Glik said. "Things certainly are improving now, and I look for that to continue through this year. Factory workers and others seem to have gotten a lot more confidence, must feel more secure and are spending more."

Joe Glik is leaving very little to chance. He plans to keep on expanding in the right locations, offering his customers quality, brand-name merchandise and keep his profit markup less than the larger department stores which carry the same items.

He's never been and never will be a merchant who stands at the front door twiddling his thumbs and watching progress and the world pass him by.

Endorse Dixon, Scott, Lindberg

The Illinois Education Association yesterday announced endorsement of statewide candidates for three offices.

Attorney General William Scott is our choice for that office. President Woody Lee said: "His steadfast support of education, his posture supporting funding of the Teachers' Retirement System and his tireless efforts to enforce constitutional changes for the benefit of education in Illinois were the determining factors."

"Nationally, the economy started to improve last fall, but it came a little later for us, not until January," Glik said. "Things certainly are improving now, and I look for that to continue through this year. Factory workers and others seem to have gotten a lot more confidence, must feel more secure and are spending more."

"Alan Dixon was a clear choice for secretary of state," Lee said, "and George Lindberg won our favor for comptroller with his past practices and pledges in support of innovative methods of dispersing the state's money, most of which goes to education."

Saunders named to board of Airport Council Armenian dance group to appear here Oct. 31

Arvin H. Saunders, executive director of the St. Louis Metropolitan Airport Authority, has been named a director of the Airport Operators Council International.

Saunders was elected during the organization's annual conference at San Francisco, Calif., in which Clifton A. Moore, general manager of the Los Angeles Department of Airports, was elected president. George J. Bean, director of the Hillsborough County, Fla., Aviation Authority, is the new first vice-president of AOCL. Other new officers are H. Jay Setter, director of aviation for the Wichita Airport Authority, second vice-president, and C. B. Pattarini, director of aviation for the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, secretary-treasurer.

Other members of the board of directors are Eldon E. Davidson, airport director for the Savannah Airport Commission; Ernest E. Dean, executive director of the Dallas-Fort Worth Airport; Raymond G. Glumack, executive director of the Minneapolis-St. Paul Metropolitan Airports Commission; Robert S. Michael, director of aviation for the city and county of Denver; Julio Maymi Pagan, executive director of the Puerto Rico Ports Authority and Neil M. Woodroffe, transport attaché for the Australian Embassy in Washington.

The Airport Operators Council International represents the governmental bodies responsible for the development and operation of the public air carrier airports in the United States and on five continents around the world.

The Nayiri Dance Group from New York City will present a single performance at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 31, in the auditorium at Granite City High School South.

The appearance here of the renowned group, whose program is entitled "A Dance Trip Through Armenia," will be part of an Armenian cultural presentation sponsored by the Granite City Bicentennial Commission and St. Gregory, The Illuminator, Armenian Apostolic Church.

Miss Nelle Bogosian, chairman of the event, said immediately following the dance presentation a cultural display of art works and artifacts, together with serving of authentic Armenian food, is scheduled to be held in the South cafeteria.

The Armenian cultural program is being arranged in commemoration of the Bicentennial Year and is being supported, in part, by a grant from the American Revolutionary Bicentennial Administration and the Illinois Bicentennial Commission, a state agency.

Serving on the planning committee with Miss Bogosian are Mrs. Isabelle Varian, Mrs. MarLean Manogian, Mrs. Rose Torosian, Mrs. Annette Hagopian, Mrs. Marge Sisoian and Ralph Astorian.

New federal 'sunshine' law

The Government in the Sunshine Act (S.S. PL. 94-409), newly signed by the President, requires Congressional committees and 47 federal agencies to hold open meetings except in five instances.

Meetings can be voted closed only for national defense and foreign policy discussions, internal matters, criminal or civil investigations, personal privacy and commercial trade secret discussions.

Most Congressional committee hearings were open to the public under previous rules, but the "Sunshine Act" will require additional committee functions, such as voting sessions, bill mark-up (final revision) meetings and general discussions to be open to the public.

Executive agencies, such as the Departments of Defense, Commerce and Treasury, are not covered because final responsibility is given to the agency head.

Cahokia eleven at South's homecoming

Coach Stan Wojcik's Warrior gridders will seek their first win of the season as a highlight of GCHS South's 1976 homecoming festivities. South hosts the Cahokia Comanches at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Granite City Stadium.

After dropping its season opener to St. Louis DeSmet 35-0, South has held its opponents close in two near-wins, losing 9-6 to O'Fallon and then 14-8 to Belleville East.

"We are primed for a victory after the two close contests," says Assistant Coach Leroy Beck. He added that Cahokia's defense is receiving much attention.

"It's a pressure defense geared to stopping running plays," says Beck. "After holding Alton to 44 yards rushing on 39 carries, Cahokia's defensive squad is riding sky-high with emotion."

The Comanches suffered 17 straight losses, including a 50-0 record in 1975, before whipping Alton 7-0 this weekend.

One of last season's losses was 27-0 conquest by South. Thus far this season, Cahokia has lost 9-6 to GCHS North and then 21-12 to East St. Louis Assumption before winning the Alton contest.

"An example of their defense was evident in the Assumption contest," notes Beck. "Assumption was not allowed one first down in the first half of play."

The Comanche attack has balance, with skilled running and passing.

Cahokia's aerial attack is launched by Quarterback Dave Hagenbrock, a sophomore, and his usual receiver is Maurice Thompson, a senior. Thompson scored against both North High and Assumption after hauling in passes.

Hagenbrock, a substitute for injured starter Carl Carlson, was one of the stars in the Alton contest, completing nine passes in 12 attempts for 63 yards and a TD.

Hagenbrock also kicked the extra point and on defense stopped a scoring attempt when he forced an Alton runner out of bounds at the one-yard line as time ran out.

"More than likely they'll be coming at us on the ground with Senior Wayne Demetrius," speculates Beck. "He is one of the most exciting runners in the area."

His ground-gaining provided Cahokia with good field position throughout the Alton contest. Demetrius carried the ball 22 times for 118 yards.

Coach Jim McKay's Comanches face the task of stopping Warrior running back Mike Clark, a senior who has rushed thus far for 135 yards and garnered both of South's touchdowns.

Complementing Clark in the backfield is Junior Bob Ronney, who has 70 yards rushing as a converted guard now in the fullback position.

Quarterback Keith Champion's passing provides added power to South's offense. He has 12 completions for 179 yards.

Columbia host to Trojans Saturday

The Columbia Eagles were not supposed to field a football team this year due to a school district budget cut that was to eliminate the sport. But money donated by the school's booster club kept the program alive and the club has been rewarded with a 2-1 win-loss record going into Saturday afternoon's two o'clock contest with Madison High School at Columbia.

Coach Joe Day, now in his fourth season, has had teams with a three-year record of 16-11-2, including an 8-2 season in 1974 and 2-7-1 last year.

Last year's losses include a 29-0 defeat afflicted by Madison's Trojans.

Sixteen returning lettermen responded to the call this season, including Carl Schlemmer, a sophomore quarterback who led the Eagles to a 13-0 shutout over Troy, Mo., and a 14-3 win over Missouri's Lutheran South before a 38-6 defeat by Orchard Farm, Mo.

Schlemmer led his Quad-County Conference team to the initial win on eight aerial completions in 14 attempts, including a three-yard TD pass to Mike Martin.

Columbia's Tom Heisch, a former running back turned linebacker, aided his school's victory defensively with 11 solo tackles, two assists and a fumble recovery.

Larry Crossley hauled in a 30-yard aerial for a TD and Scott Schaffer caught two passes for a total of 35 yards against Lutheran South.

Schaffer caught four aerials for 61 yards against Orchard Farm as Schlemmer kept the ball in the air, completing 11 of 27 attempts for a total of 139 yards.

The Eagles' running game netted 67 yards against Troy and 44 against Orchard Farm. Four running backs are active—Tom Toenjes, Rory Bergmann, Martin and Keith Lyerla.

Trojan James Heard, a sophomore who last year gained more than 1,000 yards rushing in non-varsity contests, potentially is a major MHS scoring threat on the ground, but hasn't found many holes open thus far to run through.

Heard leads the team in rushing with 27 yards, and also in yards gained on pass receptions, 108. He has three touchdowns in three outings.

Quarterback Joe Preechotinski, a 6-3 junior, has completed 20 aerials in 52 attempts for 349 yards and has found capable receivers in Rudy Rangel, Prince Giles and Brian Eaves.

Madison has lost 21-14 to St. Genevieve, Mo., 20-14 to Warrenton, Mo., and 40-6 to Eldorado.

First-year mentor Nick Jakich is expected to initiate changes in the Trojan offensive and defensive lines in preparation for Saturday's contest.

HOMECOMING BONFIRE in Wilson Park Tuesday night, part of "homecoming week" activities of Granite City High School South. Several hundred students attended

Undefeated Steeler team visits Roxana

GCHS North's football Steelers will attempt to continue their winning ways against the Roxana Shells at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow when the two undefeated teams (both are 3-0) clash for a fourth time. The scene will be the Shell gridiron.

A member of the Mississippi Valley Conference, Roxana is led by sixth-year Coach Charles Raich, who saw his team claim conference honors in 1973 and then finished second to Mascoutah in each year since then.

The Steelers first met Roxana in 1973, the year North High was opened. North suffered a 34-7 loss to the Shells in the initial contest.

North subsequently has defeated Roxana by somewhat lopsided scores, 31-0 and 21-8. Tomorrow's clash promises to be on a more even basis due to both schools entering the game with both experience and expertise.

Coach Tom Wyrstok's Steelers opened with a 14-6 win over Cahokia and then proceeded to defeat Collinsville 9-0 and Wood River 49-14. Roxana has won 40-19 over Piasa Southwestern, 10-7 over Mascoutah and 48-7 over Triad (St. Jacob-Troy-Marine).

Both squads have adept runners, including Senior Fred Clay of North and Junior Jim Brown of Roxana.

Clay has put five touchdowns on the scoreboard and has rushed for 345 yards, including four TD's and 237 yards against Wood River.

Brown, a 160-pound halfback, is the Shells' only returning junior letterman. He has racked up 310 yards rushing and scored six TD's, including three touchdowns against Piasa and two in the Triad contest.

Like Steeler Quarterback Greg Corey, Roxana's signal-caller, Senior Bill Vinyard, a two-year letterman, possesses a talented throwing arm and has the ability to scramble with the ball when necessary.

Corey, in three outings, has

DeMolays win district flag football title

The flag football team of the James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay, defeated the Ascalon Chapter team of Collinsville 19-2 in a DeMolay District 16 flag football tournament held at the Granite City High School North football field this week.

The Granite Cityans will journey to Quincy Sunday for a 16-district game with Quincy at 2 p.m. at Q Stadium, 20th and Sycamore.

The winner of this game will play in area competition on Sunday, Oct. 10, in Bloomington.

For the Quincy game Oct. 3, DeMolays will leave from Reese Drug Store at Bellemore Village at 9 a.m.

Eleven members were in Edwardsville Tuesday night for a District 16 meeting at the Masonic Temple. The DeMolay obligatory "educational day" was observed.

Howard Robertson, a member of the Highland School Board, spoke on the value of education. Robertson is the chapter advisor of Highland DeMolays.

While the DeMolays were in session on the second floor, there was a meeting of the district's clubs on the first floor. Attending were Mrs. Shirley DeCourcey and Mrs. Jo Meyer of the local area.

The Granite City delegation was led by Master Council-elect Bob DeCourcey and included Norman Burgess, Frank Chandler, David Foote, Bruce Groshong, David Harley, Kirk Potillo, Kelly Smith, Terry Sutton, Nick Thornelyke, Dennis Worthen and Advisor Charles Meyer.

BRODHEAD INITIATES NEW PROGRAM

"Sammy" Georgeff

NOTICE!

To all potential new car buyers! BRODHEAD FORD of East St. Louis has initiated an original profit-sharing Community Help Program. $100 Cash Scholarship Grants for Community Students. When you buy any new Ford vehicle from BRODHEAD FORD, you may request that BRODHEAD give to the Student of your choice a Cash Grant check for $100 Cash payable immediately. The check will be given at the time of new car delivery.

The Cash Scholarship Grant may be given to any person who is enrolled in school, from Kindergarten thru High School, Trade School or College. No age requirements; any student is eligible because it costs money to send all students to school these days. You Choose the Student. BRODHEAD FORD will give the Cash Scholarship check to you in the student's name at the time of delivery.

Joy Pierson on new women's tennis team

The SUE women's tennis team will open its first regular season of intercollegiate competition tomorrow, when the Cougars travel to Decatur to participate in the 61st annual Mullikin memorial tennis tournament.

Kent DeMars, head coach of the SUE men's tennis team, will assume charge of this year's women's team. He will be assisted by Marion DeHoff of St. Louis.

Last week, the women played against each other in challenge matches. This week, DeMars will evaluate the results of the matches and make decisions on final team members.

There are a dozen women students participating now, and DeMars expects more to come out for the team during this, the first week of classes. But the coach soon will have to cut the squad to a maximum of 10 women.

DeMars already has made a tentative decision about the players for the weekend tournament. On the basis of last week's practices, he has chosen Pat Phillips as top-seeded singles players. She was the number one player of the women's team at the University of Arizona last year.

The number two and three ranked players for SUE will compose the top-seeded doubles team. They are Pat Ziegenfuss of Leavenworth and Deborah Hirsch of Belleville.

DeMars ranks Jeanne Depper of Edwardsville fourth. She will play in singles competition this weekend.

The coach has also tentatively selected Debbie Wild of Edwardsville and Joy Pierson of Granite City as his second-seeded doubles team.

Also participating in women's tennis are Susan Hassinger of Edwardsville, Jackie Hudock of Wood River, Terri Mason of Belleville, Brian Meehan of Belleville, Debbie Paterline of Mascoutah and Debbie Stankowski of Edwardsville.

"We've got a super first-year team," DeMars said. "If only we would be playing similar first-year competition."

The women tennis Cougars face such foes as their sister school, SIU at Carbondale, and Edwardsville and Eastern Illinois University in the first year's schedule.

Steelers golfers beat Jerseyville

GCHS North golfers won 166-195 yesterday afternoon at Jerseyville. Steelers Dan Harper shot a 38, Russ Chappell Jr. 45 and George Bartz and Doug Kraus 43 each.

North's junior varsity squad, led by Mike Coyle's 48, defeated the hosts 196-211.

On Monday afternoon, North lost 179-180 to Lebanon and 171-178 to Triad in eight-player competition at the Arlington course here. Harper scored 41, Bartz 44, Kraus 46, Mike Cella 47, Chappell 48, Coyle 49 and Rob Henke and Rob Fialka, 53 each.

In the same event, Triad defeated Lebanon 171-176 and the North junior varsity won 192-205 over Lebanon.

Gator gridders gain 8-6 win

Grigsby Jr. High School's football squad yesterday won 8-6 at Edwardsville.

Kevin Buchanan capped a 70-yard drive by the Gators with a 15-yard run into the end zone and then added two points on a conversion dash in the third quarter.

Grigsby gained net yardage of 400 and was penalized 145 yards. Edwardsville scored in the second period on a 50-yard run.

WORKING TOGETHER on the GCHS South baseball-soccer complex, in the rain, the Boosters of the Fighting Warriors, an active group of parents and alumni, along with students, coaches and Warrior athletes, put up a fence on school grounds. The South Boosters have been supporting teams for 23 years. The enthusiasm, despite damp weekend weather, matched that when the organization was first started. Franz Feigl, current president of the club, said.

BOOSTERS OF THE FIGHTING WARRIORS in the past have been responsible at Granite City High School South for such things as the pressbox, shirts for the cross-country team and erection of a kickboard for soccer. During the weekend, they erected a fence surrounding the baseball-soccer area on Fehling Road and have plans for lighting the site as financing becomes available through the group's fund-raising projects. Parents, students, coaches and Warrior athletes are pictured putting fence posts in place. Regular meetings of the club are held on second and fourth Tuesdays in Room 138 of the School.

The 33rd Degree of Scottish Rite Freemasonry was conferred yesterday upon E. Gene Ross of Granite City, Dr. Anthony E. Bott Sr., of Belleville, William R. Popkes, formerly of Belleville and at present of Highland, and Clarence V. Tolley of O'Fallon. All are members of the Southern Illinois Scottish Rite Bodies headquartered in Belleville on North 57th Street. The 33rd Degree, an honorary degree and the highest conferred in Scottish Rite Freemasonry, is awarded for service to Freemasonry or humanity or both. The degree was conferred in Milwaukee, Wis. at the annual meeting of the Supreme Council. Stanley F. Maxwell, 33rd degree sovereign grand commander of Lexington, Mass. officiated. Assisting him was George E. Burrow, 33rd degree of Danville, Ill., the deputy of all Scottish Rite Masons in Illinois. Also assisting was Robert B. Perkins, 33rd degree of Belleville, an active member for the state of Illinois. The delegation from Southern Illinois consisting of 21 thirty-thirds and their ladies, was led by Wyatt Rawlings, 33rd degree of Lebanon, the commander-in-chief.

E. Gene Ross, 33rd degree, resides in Granite City and has been, and is active in every branch of Freemasonry. He is an acknowledged leader of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, and the director of the Scottish Rite Third Degree Team. He is hospitalier of the St. Clair Lodge of Perfection, high priest of the Chablis Council of Princesses of Jerusalem, and in addition has been active in the Granite City Red Cross and United Fund. He presently is employed in Civil Service.

Dr. Anthony E. Bott, Sr., 33rd degree, who presently resides in Belleville, was a member of the Board of Education of East St. Louis School District 189 for many years. He was a trustee of Christian Welfare Hospital for 28 years and is now trustee emeritus.

For ten of those 28 years he was corporate president and chairman of the executive committee.

As the result of his interest in children's diseases, particularly polio, he prevailed upon several medical foundations to provide the funds for the hospital's expansion. Within his profession he has also been a leader. He was very active in the treatment and control of disease in swine.

William R. Popkes, 33rd degree, resided in Belleville until he moved recently to Rural Route One, Highland, Ill. He operates the William R. Popkes Insurance Agency in Belleville, is a past potentate of the Signal Hill Board of Education, as president and director of the Metro-East YMCA, and as district director of the Rotary International. Rev. Clarence V. Tolley, 33rd degree, is a member of Gothic Lodge 852. He received his DODGE CHARGER FOR 1977 presents a look of formal luxury in its Special Edition version, pictured. The new Dodges are on display at Granite City Dodge, 1911 Madison Ave., Jack Schmaack has announced. Dodge highlights for 1977 include the Aspen coupe, four-door sedan and four-door wagon; the specialty hardtops, Charger SE and Charger Daytona; full-sized Royal Monacos and intermediate-sized Monacos; the Sportsman wagon, and the Dodge Ramcharger four-wheel-drive sports vehicle.

Popkes has served the people of St. Clair County, and Southern Illinois among other ways, as president and member of the Signal Hill Board of Education, as president and director of the Metro-East YMCA, and as district director of the Rotary International.

He retired from the ministry in 1968. Rev. Tolley has been active in all Masonic bodies since he became a member of Gothic Lodge. He has served as chaplain of the Grand Chapter of the Royal Arch Masons for a number of years, is chaplain of Ainal Shrine and is serving as prior of the Mississippi Valley Consistory. He received a 21 year perfect attendance award at the Rotary Convention in April 1975.

Nameoki Demos study election campaign plans

An informal discussion of the Democratic candidates for national, state and local offices in the Nov. 2 general election and of the local programs supporting the candidates was held during the weekend meeting of the Nameoki Township Democratic Precinct Committee's group during the weekend at Charlie's Restaurant.

Guests at the meeting were State Rep. Joe Lucco of Edwardsville; state representative candidate Jim McPike and his wife Carol Ann of Alton; Nick and Leona Hamilton and Committee member Marshall of Canteen Township.

The local group's committee aides also were guests. A letter was read from Democratic gubernatorial candidate Michael J. Howlett, saying he was sorry he was unable to attend the meeting due to other commitments, but adding he will attempt to meet with Nameoki Township officials before the election.

CD RADIO STOLEN
A citizens band radio valued at $190 was stolen from the auto of George Holder, St. Louis, sometime after 5:30 p.m. Saturday. Holder had his car parked near 21st Street and Benton Avenue.

Dress-A-Doll contest opens at Trust bank

E. A. Karandjeff, chairman of Granite City Trust and Savings Bank, today announced the opening of the ninth annual Dress-A-Doll Contest to provide colorful-dressed girl dolls for less fortunate children of the community.

The competition is a prize contest in which the bank furnishes all dolls and prizes while the contestants donate their skills to sew original costumes for the dolls.

Prizes will be awarded in six categories: fancy dress, nationality costume, character, knit and croch, sensible dress, and special class.

The Granite City Trust Bank awards individual cash prizes in each of the six categories; plus an overall grand prize, for the best dressed doll in the contest, Karandjeff said.

After the dolls are on display in the bank lobby during the first two weeks of December, the dolls will be distributed by various local agencies to needy children at Christmas time.

Orientation for parents

An innovative program for orientation of parents of freshmen students at Granite City High School South was attended last week by 178 parents. The first-time program was initiated by counselors and administrators at the high school to foster cooperation between the school and home.

A parent handbook, also new this year, was distributed to parents who were involved in four small group discussions. Topics included "Attendance and Final Exam Policy," led by assistant principal Ken Spaulding; "Extra Curricular Activities," explained by Larry Heagy, student council vice president; "Graduation Requirements and Registration Procedures," directed by LaVerna Corbitt, counselor, and "Smoking Area and Open Car Policy," discussed by James Dumont, school principal.

Refreshments were served by members of the Red Peppers, the school pep club and Counselor Sonya Adkerson chaired the evening's program. It was a worthwhile evening and the parents reactions at the conclusion of the program were super. We hope next year's orientation for parents will be even better," Mrs. Corbitt said.

NAACP seeks meeting with school board

A special meeting of the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People) has been called at 7 p.m. today in the Friendship Baptist Church, 301 Meredocia St., Venice.

John Henry Williams, president of the NAACP, said, "We are concerned over the tensions at the Madison High School and over lack of action by the Madison School Board in solving these problems. We are requesting a meeting with the Madison Board of Education and hope to air some of our problems and have a good school for all the children."

effectively with the problem of solid waste, which now amounts to nine million tons each year," the EPA has only succeeded in stifling the ability of local government to answer local needs.

Thompson proposed that a system be developed under which local-level planning bodies would acquire land and lease it to private landfill operators.

These operators would charge for their services over a designated period and eventually return the site to the community in a condition developed for recreational purposes, he added.

Decisions concerning landfills, factories, sewage plants and other pollution sites should not be settled by the state alone. Local input is essential.

Rites conducted for brother of GC man

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church, Collinsville, for Clarence Frank Holten, 74, of Collinsville, a brother of Elwyn "Red" Holten of Granite City.

He died Sunday at Memorial Hospital, Belleville. Mr. Holten was a retired painter for the Civil Engineering Group, Scott Air Force Base, and a 30-year member of Knights of Columbus Council, 1712, Collinsville.

Other survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ida Mashek Holten and another brother, Alfred J. Holten of Collinsville.

Downtown St. Louis group praises plan for new airport

"Transportation Secretary Coleman's decision on the airport question is consistent with the position of Downtown St. Louis, Inc., and we support it strongly," James E. Brown, president of the organization, has commented.

"We also applaud the decision because it promises to resolve the issue that has divided the people of metropolitan St. Louis for the past eight years."

"We urge business leaders, elected officials and all St. Louisans—be they from Missouri or from Illinois—to unite behind the secretary's decision and to work together toward assuring St. Louis of an important future role in air transportation."

"St. Louis can no longer afford disunity on an issue of such significance," Brown continued.

"At the public hearing in January 1976, Downtown St. Louis, Inc., urged Secretary Coleman to give first priority to making Lambert-St. Louis International Airport a first-class airport in every respect and to keeping it in operation as the region's commercial air terminal for the maximum length of time."

"We also urged the secretary to instruct the Federal Aviation Administration to designate the Columbia-Waterloo (Ill.) site as the established site for a new regional airport for the St. Louis metropolitan area when one is needed," Brown went on.

"Our board believes that the Department of Transportation is in the best position to decide the question of Lambert's maximum practical life span as a major national and international airport."

"We accept, therefore, Secretary Coleman's finding that 'beyond the early 1990s, Lambert will be unable to meet demand without unacceptably high delays or reduced levels of service.'"

"We are reassured that Lambert will be made a first-class airport in every respect by the secretary's comments at his news conference and that the Parsons master plan will be carried out in large part, and by his direction to the FAA 'to provide every reasonable assistance to insure Lambert's continued operation as a major air carrier airport until the date of transfer of air carrier operations to Columbia-Waterloo.'"

"In his news conference, Secretary Coleman also said he believes that the new airport at Columbia-Waterloo will benefit development of downtown St. Louis. We concur, because downtown is ideally situated to provide convenient access both to Lambert and to Columbia-Waterloo."

"We believe that businessmen looking for a location convenient to Lambert today and convenient to Columbia-Waterloo tomorrow will choose downtown."

"We welcome, too, the fact that the secretary's decision will lead to retention of Lambert as a major airport serving 'extremely well' the needs of the rapidly-growing field of general and business aviation."

"This use will assure the preservation of Lambert as a valuable asset to the development of the St. Louis region and to downtown, in particular," Brown concluded.

Downtown St. Louis, Inc. is a private not-for-profit organization devoted to development and promotion of the downtown St. Louis area as the "largest business and activity center in the metropolitan area."

The 350 members of the organization are businesses and professional firms of all kinds and sizes representing the scope of the downtown business community.

Blood bank here today

An open blood bank will be conducted at the Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, 20th Street and Delmar Avenue, from 2 p.m. until 7 p.m. today.

The blood bank will be sponsored by Church Women United in cooperation with the American Red Cross.

A similar blood program was held yesterday at the church.

Col. 127 "... Christ in you the hope of glory."

Christ is our only hope. We face a monumental crisis in every nation on earth. I do not speak of wars, earthquakes, famines, though these things do present crisis conditions. I do speak of individual moral decay. The prevailing attitude today is, if I want to do it, that makes it okay. Nothing could be further from the truth.

The solution? Not a national decree, not a world day prayer, not even renewed determination within ourselves, but Christ in YOU. May I say it again? Not Christ for the nation, not Christ for the state, not Christ for our neighbor, but CHRIST in YOU.

If the world is to be safe for coming generations we are the RESPONSIBLE GENERATION. It will take Christ in you. That is our only hope.

The apostle Paul states: "I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me." Would you accept Christ' life in you? Today.

Politics hum as Pontoon, Nameoki officials begin choosing sides

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

Pontoon Beach may play an important part in electing Nameoki Township officials next April and political alignments between Pontoon Beach officials already are becoming apparent as the race heats up between a faction headed by Nameoki Township Supervisor Louis Whitsell and one headed by Township Highway Commissioner Albert Bell and Tax Assessor Carl Macios.

At the last Pontoon Beach Village Board meeting, a letter from Bell was read, offering the township highway department's services to the village whenever needed.

The village has its own small highway department, but still pays taxes to the township to help maintain roads.

Bell's letter was criticized as "ridiculous" by Pontoon Beach Village Board President Floyd David Moss who said Bell has done very little for the village, but now is offering his help with election time near.

Moss estimated the township's highway department has spent about $2,500 in the village since Bell was elected in 1970 while village residents have paid about $119,272 in road taxes to the township in the last six years.

One half of the road and bridge taxes collected in the village are returned to the village while Bell gets the other half. Bell also receives all of a special hard road fund allocation of 16.7 cents per $100 assessed valuation, which is slightly higher than the 16.5 cent road and bridge fund rate.

In five years, the village has received only $8,219 of special bridge fund taxes to operate its highway department. None of the $119,272 in road taxes paid by village residents to the township, Moss contended.

In a letter detailing his contention, Moss said, "Only one-half of the road and bridge taxes are given to the village to repair our streets. None of the other taxes collected for the special hard road fund, special bridge fund, road damage fund or Illinois municipal retirement fund are turned over to the village, but are kept by the (township) highway commissioner and spent outside of Pontoon Beach."

"Village residents therefore, are subject to taxation without representation. The village property assessed valuation is $3,946,008 in Nameoki Township, plus $20,570 in Chouteau Township," Moss said.

Trustees Paul Bennett and Raymond Gaudette Jr. told Moss that Bell presently is working on two streets in the village because they asked him and he responded immediately.

Moss responded, "We have asked him before for snow removal and he would not do it." Trustee Keith Biggs also contended, "I have asked him for road grading and he said he did not have the time."

Gaudette said the village also received motor fuel taxes for the village highway department and the village has the primary responsibility for maintaining its roads and streets, but Bell must respond if asked to help, when he has the time and manpower available.

Moss contended Chouteau Township Highway Commissioner James Estes has been far more helpful to the village than Bell has been, even though Chouteau Township receives a very small percentage of the village's taxes. Nameoki Township Supervisor Louis Whitsell was in the audience during the meeting and told the board he has men available under the Manpower program which can be made available to the village if needed. He noted the Manpower workers assigned to the township government are under his control while those assigned to the township highway department are under Bell's control.

Bennett noted the board's approval of dumping dirt to improve drainage in a swail in Lakeview Estates and told Whitsell, "We could use some men with shovels to help move that dirt by hand." Whitsell pledged he will send the men when they are needed.

Whitsell also noted the work the township highway commissioner presently is doing in the village and state, "I will let Bell send you a bill for the work he is doing."

The board also agreed to purchase a used dump truck for $2,000 from Chester Anderson, who submitted the only bid on good used dump trucks.

Bennett ordered the highway department to keep a running log of each time the truck is used and serviced and obey a daily safety and maintenance checklist to keep the truck in good condition.

The board approved a permit for 4149 Pontoon Road, formerly Jackie's Dairy Queen, to sell jewelry, dishes and other small items.

During the vote on the license, Gaudette and Moss abstained and Donald C. Rea voted no, saying it is illegal for board members to vote on a business license.

Moss said the board is "voting to allow the clerk to exercise her constitutional duties" to issue the license. He contended the board has no right to vote on business licenses.

The board declined to respond to a question from a man in the audience who questioned why the village's bills were not being posted publicly in the village hall 24 hours prior to meetings, as required by village ordinances. His only answer was,

"The meeting has been adjourned," given by Trustee Duane Skinner. A request from a resident for a traffic light at Pontoon Road and Lake Drive brought an explanation from Moss that the state highway department has been contacted about another traffic light on Pontoon Road and state engineers are studying the area to determine the best site for the light. "They may decide to put it at the entrance to the (Gaslight Plaza) shopping center or at Breckenridge Lane or at Lake Drive. That is up to the state engineers now," Moss said. Whitsell suggested the village also investigate the possibility of obtaining federal funds for additional traffic lights and improvements.

The board declined to take further action on the contention of a resident that a corner of his garage is sinking due to a faulty village storm water sewer line. Bennett said the street department dug a hole and determined the sewer line is not at that location and the village is not responsible for the damage.

3-1 stock split by Norfolk, Western Shareholders of Norfolk and Western Railway Company have voted to approve a three-for-one split of the company's common stock.

The split was approved by the holders of 79 per cent of the outstanding stock, substantially in excess of the required two-thirds vote.

In connection with the stock split, the number of authorized shares of common stock will be increased from 15 million to 60 million and the par value reduced from $25 to $8.33-1/3 a share.

The reason for the stock split is to broaden ownership of the stock and enhance its marketability.

Issuance of the additional shares has been approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission. They will be mailed about Nov. 1 to stockholders of record at the close of business on Oct. 1.

When the split becomes effective, NW's current quarterly dividend rate of $1.32 a share will be adjusted to 44 cents a share, so that a stockholder will receive the same total dividend for his split shares as he had received for his unsplit shares.

NW currently has about 10.4 million shares outstanding. After the split, it will have about 31.2 million shares outstanding.

Illinois aid eligibles rise 4 times faster than national rate—Thompson

Labeling the Illinois Medicaid program "a national disgrace," Republican gubernatorial candidate James R. Thompson proposed a four-point plan Wednesday to "out waste and fraud within the system and upgrade health services to citizens who depend on the program."

During news conferences in Chicago, Champaign, Springfield, Moline and Rockford, Thompson cites sources which estimate fraud by health service providers to be from $200 million to $300 million per year.

He said that with "Illinois' current fiscal crisis and the importance of Medicaid to the nearly one million citizens served by it, we cannot afford to waste even one dollar of the money on fraud."

Illinois' Medicaid program has a budget of more than $900 million for fiscal year 1977 which represents about half the total budget for the Department of Public Aid.

The services provided vary, including hospital and laboratory services, dental care, home health and nursing services and treatment and detection of early childhood diseases.

Thompson's plan, issued in his 11th position paper of the campaign, called for:

1. Implementing the federal government's Medicaid Management Information System.
2. Improving the relationship between the Department of Public Aid and Medicaid service providers through a vendor liaison program.
3. Establishing an independent office to investigate Medicaid fraud.
4. Implementing a record book program for Medicaid recipients to insure that services are documented and that chances for fraud are limited.

From 1973 through 1974, the number of persons eligible for public aid grew 17.3 per cent nationwide, while the percentage of eligibles in Illinois grew 81.8 per cent—more than four times the national rate, Thompson said.

He said this growth is the result of ineffective screening procedures for other public aid programs—the source of Medicaid claims.

Estimates indicate that payments for services to ineligible recipients could waste as much as $100 million for fiscal year 1977, he added.

Thompson said the "greatest source of waste in the Medicaid program is not the ineligible recipient."

"It is the greedy, unscrupulous health service provider who not only contributes to our financial crisis, but also darkens the reputation of a profession shared by many skilled people."

Thompson's plan for cutting down on fraud and waste includes implementing the federal government's model computer system to administer the public aid program.

Five years ago, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare System. Under the system, the government paid 90 per cent of the cost of implementation and 75 per cent for operation.

However, Illinois has yet to utilize this program and should do so immediately, Thompson said. The system would allow the department to process bills efficiently and monitor them for possible fraud.

Thompson also proposed improving the relationship between the Public Aid Department and Medicaid vendors through a vendor liaison program.

Under the program, vendors would aid the state in detecting fraud through a specialized review group.

Thompson proposed the establishment of an independent office to investigate fraud by Medicaid service providers. The bureaus that now have this responsibility have ties to the Department of Public Aid and are trained only in detecting fraud by recipients, rather than vendors, he said.

Finally, Thompson proposed that each Medicaid recipient be given a record book in which Medicaid providers would be required to record the date, nature and cost of services provided.

The book would "provide honest vendors with a basis for rejecting improper requests by recipients. It would also provide information that could be used to verify possible fraud and abuses with the system. A similar system has been successful in Texas."

Thompson asserted that since the Medicaid program began in 1966, costs have increased by more than 1,000 per cent.

He suggested that Illinois study turning the state's Medicaid program over to private firms, similar to Medicare.

"Every avenue should be explored to determine the best manner in which to overcome the deficiencies in our existing Medicaid system," Thompson said.

"Hundreds of millions of dollars have been lost while the state has rapidly approached the brink of a financial crisis."

State-backed projects can pay dividend of more private sector jobs—Howlett

Democrat Michael J. Howlett said in a weekend campaign statement, "My Republican opponent for governor has little or no respect for the truth. He is now running around the state contending that he is keeping track of the cost of promises I have made during the campaign."

"He alleges that I promised $2.5 billion of roads, dams, lakes and other construction projects. Well, we've been keeping track, too."

"Thus far, the total cost to the state of all the projects I have firmly committed myself to support is less than six per cent of Thompson's inflated charge—and that will be spread over several years."

"These projects will bring to Illinois an additional $900 million in federal money—more than six times the required state investment. Illinois now receives only 72 cents from the federal government for each dollar in federal taxes we pay."

"Support for these projects will help to change that. They are also needed to put Illinois' 360,000 unemployed workers back to work."

"Private enterprise and private employment cannot expand without adequate water supplies and good, inexpensive transportation. Each of the projects I have supported will be a stimulus to economic development and jobs."

"Each of them will lead to increased private development employment and increased state sales and income taxes far exceeding the initial investment."

"Obviously, my opponent and his staff are unable to distinguish between prior expenditures, projects in this year's budget and future long-range commitments."

"Their listing is not only inaccurate but bloated by dollars already spent or committed by the present administration. This episode is but another example of his inability to deal with fiscal matters and thereby avoid increased taxes."

"The people of Illinois deserve to know where the candidates stand on the issues before the election. I have tried to fulfill that obligation; my opponent has not, and has the gall to criticize me for doing so."

"Each of my opponent's manufactured issue papers quotes him as saying: 'Candidates for office have an obligation to the voters to clearly identify where they stand on every major issue.'"

"I ask you—When is he going to start honoring that promise? 'I am confident the people will rebuke him Nov. 2 for not keeping his word.'"

The new Salvation Army Corps Community Center, 3007 E. 23rd St., will host a grand opening from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. Friday to acquaint local residents with the many games and activities being offered members.

More than 250 residents joined the center during the summer months when pool, ping pong, magic shows, movies, field trips, bumper pool, crafts, air hockey, swimming and softball were offered as activities.

Two new staff members have just been added—Michael Allen as director of youth services and Majorie Pollard as assistant director—Capt. Michael Tompkins, commanding officer, noted.

"Many new and exciting games and activities have been added to serve both youth and adults of the community. Activities being offered for the fall include pool, bumper pool, ping pong, air hockey, air handball, hoo-sie, weightlifting, movies, ceramics, shuffleboard, and many others," Tompkins said.

Special events being offered include a trip to Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville to see the Cougars play the Air Force Academy in soccer, and the Illinois intercollegiate cross-country championships, which also will be a day at the St. Louis Zoo, a trip to a golf driving range and a weekend camping trip.

A one-year membership is $3 for 7 to 13-year-olds, $4 for those 14 to 20 and $5 for those 21 or older.

A family of three or four may join for $13 per year. A family of five or more must pay $16 for the year.

The regular hours of the center will begin on Saturday. The hours are: for ages 7 to 13, 2 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., Mondays through Fridays and 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturdays.

For ages 14 to 20, the hours are 6:30 to 9 p.m., Mondays through Wednesdays and on Fridays, also on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Anyone over the age of 20 may use the center Monday through Friday from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. and on Saturdays at 10 a.m. Thursday night is adult night for those 21 and over.

Emergency care course planned at hospital

St. Elizabeth Hospital and Belleville Area College will provide a course in emergency care and transportation of the sick and injured at the St. Elizabeth Hospital Trauma Center beginning Oct. 18.

The course, 18 hours in length, is designed for policemen, firemen and ambulance attendants and others involved in caring for the critically ill and injured.

Divided into 25 sessions, with the sessions meeting on Monday and Wednesday evenings, the course leads to certification as Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) by the Illinois Department of Public Health.

Physicians in emergency rooms throughout Illinois have noted an improvement in care rendered to patients brought into hospitals by EMTs and many ambulance services have made this class a prerequisite to employment, a hospital spokesman said.

Enrollment for the course will be held at St. Elizabeth Hospital Wednesday, Oct. 6, Thursday, Oct. 7, and Friday, Oct. 8 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in person at the trauma coordinator's office.

This class is offered free of charge through a highway safety grant to BAC, students have the option of taking the class for five semester hours of college level credit by payment of the normal college fee of $45 plus a $10 enrollment fee if they have never been enrolled at BAC before.

There is also a fee of $5 for the textbook and a $15 fee for the National Registry examination. Lesson plans and textbooks will be those developed by the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons.

Enrollment will be limited to students, and priority is given to those most directly involved in emergency patient care in the home and on the street—ambulance personnel, firemen, policemen and rescue workers.

Additional information may be obtained by calling the trauma coordinator's office at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 876-2020, Extension 411.

Secretaries view fashion show

A fashion show featuring the latest style in dresses and ensembles for the working girls provided by Marilyn's House of Fashion was the highlight of the first meeting of the Future Secretaries Association (FSA) held last week at South High School.

Mrs. Marilyn Lunsford, owner and operator of the dress shop, served as commentator for the show stressing the design and style of clothing appropriate for a business office.

Senior girls who served as models included Mary Winfield, Lisa Camp, Lisa St. Cin, Lisa Mitchell and Elaine Goetting. There were 100 junior girls and 20 FSA members present for the initial meeting of the organization sponsored by the Tri-Cities Chapter of the National Secretaries Association. Mrs. Charlie Vunovic, representing the sponsoring group, spoke on the benefits of FSA membership and faculty advisors, Mrs. Judi Sparks and Mrs. Pat Stamp, explained membership procedures to the prospective members.

FSA President Mary Winfield announced membership fees have been received from 57 junior girls and formal invitations are being sent to their parents to attend the candlelight initiation ceremony set for 2 p.m. on Oct. 10 at Central Christian Church.

Following the session refreshments were served by board members at large.

Eta Chapter hosts social

Members of Eta Chapter, Phi Tau Omega Sorority met this week for a polynesian dinner at the Hu Ke Lau Restaurant.

Hostesses for the evening were Mesdames Ann Tatum, Gladys Waggoner, Mary Evelyn Yencho and Evelyn Todd.

During the social hour crazy bridge was played and prizes awarded to Lorraine Butler, Eunice Hatcher, Georgiana Van Buskirk, Mary Evelyn Yencho and Millie Greathouse. Others attending were Annette Simpkins, a guest and members Dorothy Brewster, Mary Hassler, Mary Lou Richeson, Dorothy Costello, Dolores Sheridan and Betty Krug.

A discussion was held on the forthcoming rummage sale to be held on Oct. 16 at the VFW Hall and the next meeting, set for Oct. 6.

Philathea Class resumes program

A dessert luncheon was served by Mrs. Ann Jolly, Mrs. Villa Martin and Mrs. Emma Schoen when the Philathea Class resumed regular meetings last week in the parlors at Niederrhous United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Mary Ahlvers, class president, was in charge of the business session. She also gave the devotion, taken from the Daily Blessings and written by Oral Roberts.

The members voted to send a contribution to the Retired Ministers' Fund and reviewed various experiences each had enjoyed during the summer months. Those who attended a recent convention of the Baraca-Philathea Union described activities at the meeting, which took place in Champaign, and noted a worldwide convention will be held in Bloomington next year.

Opich-Rodgers wedding at Sacred Heart Church

Miss Tana F. Rodgers, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman D. Rodgers, 1610 Third St., Madison, and Robert C. Opich, of 2401 Hodges Ave., a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Opich, were united in marriage on Aug. 27 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Father James P. Hill officiated at the double ring ceremony at 6:30 in the evening before an altar decorated with bouquets of yellow and white mums.

Nuptial selections included "We've Only Just Begun," "If," "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her wedding the bride wore a long A-line style chiffon over taffeta gown fashioned with an Empire bodice, scoop neckline and full bouffant sleeves accented with Chantilly lace.

Her mantilla veil was secured with a lace Juliet cap encrusted with pearls and she carried a cascade of daisies, baby's breath and greenery.

Matron of honor Mrs. Sheryl Rodgers, a sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Pat Opich, the groom's sister-in-law and Cheryl Przygoda selected identical yellow dotted swiss gowns.

Their full length dresses were designed with Empire bodices featuring oval necklines and short puff sleeves trimmed with daisies and rickrack.

The groom chose Francis Przygoda as his best man. Ed Opich and Kenneth Rodgers, brothers of the bride, were Michael Przygoda and Larry Opich, a nephew of the groom, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

A reception was held at Sacred Heart school cafeteria immediately following the service and the rehearsal dinner was served at the home of the bride couple.

A 1969 graduate of Madison High School, the former Miss Rodgers is now employed as a unit transcriber at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The groom is a 1965 graduate of Granite City High School South and a 1974 graduate of the St. Louis College of Pharmacy. He works at St. Elizabeth Hospital pharmacy.

They are residing in Granite City.

Chapter hears history of zoo

A cultural program, tracing the history of the zoo was presented to members of Preceptor Beta Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, by Betty Ebling and Imogene Forrest, last week.

The program chairman reported the earliest known zoo was established in Egypt in 1500 B.C. by Queen Hatshepsut and the first American zoo was created in Philadelphia in 1859.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Jane Laule, 3 Patricia Lane, with Vice President Mrs. Ebling in charge of the business session.

Progress reports were submitted by committee chairman and a official communication included one from the International office concerning the Walter W. Ross memorial scholarship and suggestion for selection of a "lady of the year" award.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT OPICH. They were married in an evening ceremony at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Formerly Miss Tana F. Rodgers, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman D. Rodgers, 1610 Third St., Madison.

Sorority City Council representative Mrs. Evelyn Tolliver said the next council meeting is set for Wednesday, Oct. 6, at St. John United Church of Christ and will be open to all members of Beta Sigma Phi.

Prizes were awarded to Pat Tsigalaroff and Jean Druhe.

Also present were Mesdames Dolores Byrnes, Dolores Dorch, Martha Jean Dyer, May Ebling, Arlene Haldeman and Miss Ruth Stoyanoff. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Dorch.

Six attend 30th Philathea meet

Six members of the Philathea Class of Niederrhous United Methodist Church attended the 30th annual convention of the Baraca-Philathea Union at the First United Methodist Church in Champaign.

Mrs. Kay Arola of Freeport, president, greeted the delegates and Mrs. Mary Ahlvers, president of the local class, presided at the Opening of the Bible ceremony and read the convention text—"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

Others attending from the Granite City class were Marvel Clover, Ella Ray Smith, Genervia Wallis, Lucy Weaver and Mary Hiller.

The program included a sermon by Dr. Jack North, pastor of the host church, entitled "The Church and the Home."

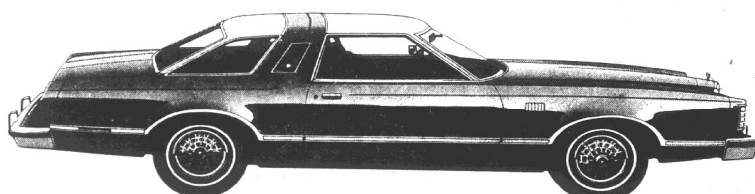

Also taking place were the installation of 1977 officers by Mrs. Grace Coyle, and a musical interlude by the Bell Ringers.

Mrs. Coyle discussed the origin of various bells from around the world and presented each new officer with a bell as a gift.

Mrs. Arola announced the worldwide Baraca-Philathea convention will be held in Bloomington, Ill., next year.

Bakalis fighting press freedom, Lindberg says

George Lindberg, Republican candidate for reelection as Illinois comptroller, has charged that his Nov. 2 opponent's suggestion of a board to oversee political news coverage would "poison the lifeblood of a free press."

In remarks before the Illinois Press Association's candidates' open forum, Lindberg said:

"Mike Bakalis' suggestion of a board to assure what he calls responsible conduct of the news media in their political reporting would poison the lifeblood of a free press. He demonstrates his bureaucratic mentality by suggesting that whatever problems exist, and must be the subject of a new board, commission or bureau."

"Thus far in the campaign, he has demanded a board of ethics for the news media, a commission on jobs and a commission on state finance, among others."

"Such an attitude toward solving problems discloses a severe lack of confidence in his own ability to solve problems with his own resources."

"It is the nature of American political campaigns that the unqualified, or lesser qualified, candidate finds himself in a position not only to raise bogus issues unrelated to the office he seeks, but also to fabricate where necessary to convey the idea of a non-existent record of accomplishment."

Lindberg cited the Illinois Annual Report (Table 5) which he said contradicts Bakalis' claim that he cut spending in each of his years as state superintendent of public instruction. "State records clearly disclose that operational spending from state funds in Mr. Bakalis' office increased each and every year of his administration by amounts as high as $200,000 a year."

"Similarly, the number of employees in his office increased in the first two years of term; and when he left office, there were nearly 100 more employees than when he started. Nobody wants a comptroller who adds

"Let nobody here be misled. Our appearance before you does not fulfill the demand I made on my opponent a month ago to debate the issues of this campaign."

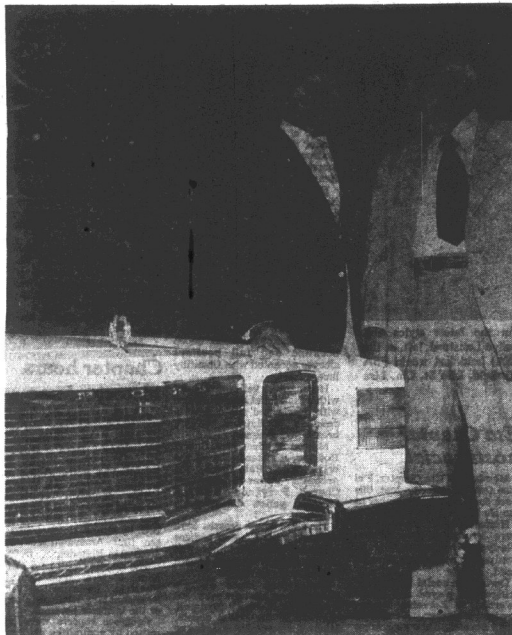

"His refusal to join me in debate, with the exception of one debate in Carbondale, demonstrated his fear that his lack of qualifications would come to the forefront."

Speaking directly to Bakalis, Lindberg said: "I'm going to say it one more time, Mike, I again challenge you to get out from under your soapbox and debate. The people of Illinois deserve no less."

Veteran benefits deadline extended

The Illinois Department of Veterans' Affairs has reminded veterans of four programs offering aid to veterans of World War II, the Korean Conflict, the Vietnam War and to those who were prisoners of war in Southeast Asia.

World War II veterans are eligible for a bonus of $10 per month for domestic service and $15 per month for foreign service, payable to Illinois residents who served on active duty from Sept. 18, 1940, and prior to Sept. 3, 1945, who received honorable discharges. The deadline for application has been extended to July 1, 1977.

Korean Conflict veterans who earned the Korean Service Medal may apply through July 1 for a $100 bonus for those who served between June 27, 1950, and July 27, 1953. The veteran must have been an Illinois resident 12 months before entering service and must have an honorable discharge.

A $100 bonus also is available to recipients of the Vietnam Service Medal who served between Jan. 1, 1961, and June 30, 1974. Immediate relatives are eligible for the bonus if the serviceman is deceased.

If the serviceman died due to service-related injuries, survivors are eligible for a $1,000 bonus. The deadline for applications is July 1, 1977.

A bonus also is available to those who were taken and held prisoner by hostile forces in Southeast Asia if they served in the Armed Forces or were employed by the U.S. Government on or after Jan. 1, 1961, and who were residents of Illinois 12 months prior to entering the service or government assignment in Southeast Asia. Those qualifying for the POW bonus are eligible for $50 for each month or portion of a month during which each was held captive.

Freeman L. Clinard, service officer for this area for the Illinois Department of Veterans' Affairs, said these are but a few of the many benefits available to veterans. He may be reached each Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the basement of the City Hall at Granite City, or can be reached by phone at the Alton office, 1-465-3216, during the rest of the week for inquiries about benefits available to veterans.

Urges care in credit buying

The American consumer of the 1970's has come to accept easy credit and "buying on time" as second nature, but safeguards should be exercised each time a purchase agreement is signed.

The Illinois State Bar Association cautions that the availability of easy credit has led a significant number of persons to the edge of bankruptcy and beyond.

Before agreeing to make a purchase which will commit the buyer to making future payments on a fixed schedule, he should be sure his budget will allow him to meet the payments without an undue strain on other financial commitments.

The ISBA also has advised consumers to be aware that the bargains vary widely in installment buying. Since bank interest rates usually are lower than rates charged by the retailer who finances the installment payments, it is wise to try to obtain a personal loan from a bank (or savings and loan) which can be repaid by monthly payments. A member of a credit union should check interest rates there, the association said.

By law, a person must be told the cash price, the finance charges and the annual rate of interest when making a purchase. Compare the total charges under an installment plan with the cash price of the merchandise, and then shop for the best terms available for financing the purchase, a spokesman advised.

The Illinois State Bar Association offers these other tips when making a purchase under a credit arrangement:

Don't fail to carefully read every document you are asked to sign. If the amount is in the hundreds of dollars and you don't understand the fine print, ask your lawyer to advise you.

Before you sign, make sure all blank spaces are filled in. Understand that when you sign the contract, illness or loss of job does not excuse you from making prompt payments. Be sure to get a copy of the installment contract at the time you sign it, and make sure the seller has also signed it.

Car restraints help protect youngsters

By JANETTE MUELLER
Madison County Extension Adviser
Home Economics

While auto manufacturers evolve their cars with more elaborate seat belts and shoulder harnesses, the safety of the preschooler is neglected.

Each year, 1,000 children under the age of five are killed and an estimated 1,000,000 are injured in car accidents. Use of child restraints could reduce these numbers considerably.

Because seat belts already in use do not offer adequate protection to children under 40 pounds and can even injure them, it is recommended that parents buy car restraint specially designed for small children.

According to safety researchers, an effective car restraint for children must be strong enough to withstand crash forces, be padded and free from hard and sharp components, have straps wide enough not to dig into the body, and be secured to the vehicle by its own special mechanism or by the seat belt.

The restraint must also be comfortable for the child to sit in and support the child's head.

Children often refuse to sit in the safety seats. Helping your child adjust to a car restraint may solve this problem.

Take short trips at first with him in the seat, and on long trips make frequent stops. Having everyone in the vehicle buckle up before you start the car may encourage children to sit in their "seat restraints."

Never buckle both you and a child into one seatbelt. In case of an accident or sudden stop, the pressure against the child's stomach could cause internal injuries.

Farm wives can help prevent accidents caused by routine and fatigue by providing regular meals and snacks for their husbands during the fall harvest.

If he is working away from the house, take a vacuum bottle and brown bag lunch to the field to give him an excuse to stop.

Modern machinery can operate continuously, but man cannot. Missed meals and sleep lead to carelessness and accidents.

Dixon-Simon-Howlett dinner

A $100-per-plate fund raising dinner will be held in Carbondale Sunday, Oct. 24, for Democratic candidates Michael Howlett, Alan Dixon and Paul Simon, the Southern Illinois Democratic Dinner Committee announced today.

The dinner will be at 7 p.m. in the ballroom of the Southern Illinois University at Carbondale Student Center.

Einar Dyhrkopp of Shawneetown, chairman of the committee, explained that the tickets are for governors, secretary of state and 24th District U.S. representative decided to hold a joint dinner instead of competing for ticket sales with separate events.

"This will be the major Southern Illinois fund-raising event of the general election campaign," Dyhrkopp added. "Howlett, Dixon and Simon will share equally in the proceeds, and they will also make contributions to the campaign funds of the other statewide candidates."

Tickets can be obtained by writing to: Southern Illinois Democratic Dinner Committee, Gerald Sinclair, Treasurer, 30 N. Lakeview Drive, Salem 62881. Tickets are also available from all Southern Illinois Democratic county chairmen.

Classes on new rite of penance

The Springfield Catholic Diocese Office of Religious Education this fall will conduct a six-week series of courses on the New Rite of the Sacrament of Penance.

According to the Rev. Kevin B. Sullivan, diocesan director of religious education, the purpose of the courses is to help prepare Catholic adults for the new rite, which is to be implemented in Lent of 1977.

The courses will begin the week of Oct. 10 and will be held in 40 locations in the diocese.

In Alton, a course will be offered in St. Matthew parish on Tuesdays, with the Rev. Thomas J. Hayes, O.M.I., as instructor.

In Bethalto, a course will be offered in Our Lady Queen of Peace parish on Tuesdays by the Rev. Virgil Mank.

In Collinsville, a course will be offered in St. Peter and Paul parish on Tuesdays, with the Rev. James L. Neuman as instructor.

In Edwardsville, a course will be offered in St. Boniface parish on Tuesdays by the Rev. Charles Banks, O.M.I.

In Granite City, a course will be offered in St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, parish on Mondays, with the Rev. Robert O'Hara serving as the instructor.

In Wood River, a course will be offered in St. Bernard parish on Tuesdays; the Rev. James P. Hill is the instructor.

All classes will begin at 7:30 p.m. There is no charge for the courses.

HURT ON 23RD

Mark Seago, 19, of 2304 St. Clair Ave., was injured when his auto and a truck driven by Benjamin Strack, Rural Route One, Box 70, Granite City, collided at East 23rd and Monroe streets Monday. Seago was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for an injury to his left elbow. X-rays were taken and he was released.

Bakalis, McPike address GC Demo committeemen

Michael J. Bakalis, former state superintendent of public instruction and Democratic candidate for comptroller, and Jim McPike of Alton, Democratic candidate for state representative from this district, were the guest speakers at the September meeting of the Granite City Township Democratic Precinct Committee's group at the office of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District.

Gerald Parmley, chairman, presided at the meeting and John Petrucci, vice-chairman, discussed the opening of the Madison County Democratic Central Committee fall campaign headquarters in the Nameoki Village Shopping Center.

Precinct committeemen were requested to volunteer their services to the headquarters at aid in the campaign. McPike was introduced by Bill Harrison, representing the Madison County Democratic Central Committee. McPike said he feels he has the support of the entire 56th Legislative District since he had defeated three local candidates in the primary election and showed he was favored by many in the

Quad-Cities

He urged strong support of the entire Democratic national and state slates, and said he was particularly impressed with speeches he attended recently by Walter Mondale, vice-presidential candidate, and State Treasurer Alan J. Dixon, running for Illinois secretary of state.

McPike said both Mondale and Dixon gave assertive presentations addressing themselves directly to the "gut issues," including unemployment, inflation, housing and problems of the elderly.

The committeemen assured McPike of their enthusiastic endorsement. The resignation of Walter Whitaker, committeeman of Granite City Township Precinct 7, was accepted since Whitaker has moved out of the precinct.

The next meeting of the committeemen is to be held at the new Democratic headquarters with the date and time to be announced.

Beginning in November, Parmley noted, meetings will be held on the third Wednesday of each month with the location yet to be decided.

Petitions ignored—not on proper forms, Nameoki told

Petitions signed more than a year ago by numerous residents of Nameoki Township and Pontoon Beach seeking railroad crossing signals at Mockingbird Lane and Lake Drive north of Route 162 were ignored by the Illinois Commerce Commission because they were not on the correct petition forms, Ray Peterson, chief engineer of the ICC, informed Nameoki Township Supervisor Louis Whitsell in a letter read to the town board of auditors Monday night.

Several hundred signatures on petitions were collected in a drive to obtain crossing signals at the two locations and copies of the petitions were sent to the ICC and to state legislators representing this area.

In a public hearing held last month, ICC officials said they were not aware of any attempt to gain crossing signals for Mockingbird Lane. Lake Drive was not mentioned in that hearing.

The comment brought a response from Whitsell in a letter to Peterson in which Whitsell reminded the ICC of the petitions and questioned the status of the application for signals at the two crossings.

In his reply, Peterson told Whitsell he had been advised "no formal petitions under the commission's rules were filed."

He sent Whitsell the proper forms for the petitions and the town board voted to refer the petition forms to Nameoki Township Highway Commissioner Albert Bell to fill out and to determine if another petition drive will be necessary.

Daytime park arrest on marijuana transfer

David Chadeayne, 22, of 2214 Edison Ave., was charged with unlawful delivery of cannabis and a 16-year-old boy was charged with disorderly conduct after off-duty police officers alleged seeing what they believed was the sale of marijuana in Wilson Park near State Street at 12:40 p.m. Monday.

Police have made several arrests of youths in the park recently in response to objections by residents of that area that groups of students and others are gathering in the park to purchase and smoke marijuana.

The officers said they were driving past the park when they saw four youths gathered and one allegedly took paper money and gave it to Chadeayne; the latter allegedly gave the youth two plastic bags containing marijuana.

The youth then allegedly was placing the bags under his trousers. Police arrested four persons, releasing two later without charging them.

Chadeayne's bond was set at $2,000 and he was taken at 1:05 a.m. Tuesday to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

Cleveland Blvd. home ransacked

Granite City police were called to the 2000 block of Cleveland Boulevard about noon Monday when residents said two youths, about 18 or 19 years of age, were seen walking away from a house and carrying a paper bag full of items.

Officers were unable to locate the youths, but discovered the screen door glass at the home of Mary and Ann Petroff, 2024 Cleveland Blvd., had been broken and the door pried open.

The bedrooms were ransacked. The resident is to prepare a list of missing items.

One boy was described as about 5 feet, 5 inches tall, weighing about 160 pounds, having long brown or blonde hair and wearing a white shirt and tan denim pants. The other may have had white hair, been about 5 feet, 8 inches tall, slender to medium build and wearing blue denim pants. Both had long sideburns, the neighbors said.

STEAL BAG, $150

Geneva Mathias, 3156 Rodger Ave., discovered Monday that her car had been broken into and an American National Bank deposit bag containing $150 in change and $2 bills had been stolen. The ignition wires also were pulled from the engine. Entry to the car, parked in her driveway, was believed to have been gained using a coat hanger to unlock a door.

ALLEGEDLY TAKES $20, PURCHASES MARIJUANA

Granite City High School South officials said they do not intend to press charges against a student who allegedly stole $20 Monday from the purse of Anita McKinney, a school counselor, and used $5 of the money to purchase marijuana.

The boy was chased and caught by a school counselor and was ordered to return the money. He returned $15, explaining he had spent the rest to purchase a bag of marijuana which he threw away during the chase. He agreed to repay the other $5 to the counselor.

Seniors enjoy day of apple picking

Senior citizens enjoyed a day of apple picking and a luncheon, last week, according to Dora Darnell of the "Y" staff.

They departed the "Y" at 9:30 a.m., making stops at the Kroger parking lot and at Anchorage. The bus arrived at Pere-Marquette State Park Lodge for a luncheon stop and then went to Elder's Farm for an afternoon of picking "golden delicious" and "winesap" apples. They returned to Granite City from the orchards at Grafton at 3:30 p.m.

The Tri-City Area YMCA has other activities for the senior citizens planned. The "Y" is a United Way Agency.

The Bi-State Development Agency has been notified that it will receive more than $16 million in federal transportation funds to purchase new buses, passenger shelters, two-way bus radios and other related equipment to further upgrade the public transportation system in the St. Louis area.

The $16,379,243 in federal funding from the Urban Mass Transportation Administration will be matched by $4,098,811 in local funds provided by Illinois and Missouri.

The announcement was made Tuesday by Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler, Bi-State Agency chairman, and Robert J. Baer, executive director.

"This award is of great significance to the residents of Missouri and Illinois," Baer said. "It will enable us to continue to modernize our bus fleet and offer the riding public comfortable, reliable service."

"We are also gratified by the confidence placed in Bi-State by the Urban Mass Transportation Administration and local-level governmental agencies."

The grant will permit purchase of 180 new air-conditioned buses and the refurbishing of 280 additional vehicles now owned by Bi-State.

It will also finance 14 air-conditioned 19-passenger vans for the elderly and handicapped, and two-way radios for all the new buses, vans and cars.

Other grant divisions include 16 new bus stop signs designed to be part of a coordinated graphics program aiding passenger information, the purchase and installation of 250 new passenger shelters and enclosure of 41 existing shelters, and the purchase of new registering fareboxes and shop equipment.

Baer stressed that the grant proposal and subsequent approval were made possible by revenues produced from the half-cent transportation sales tax in the City of St. Louis and St. Louis County, and by a subsidy from the State of Illinois.

"These tax monies," Baer said, "are of vital importance because they enable us to aggressively seek matching federal funds for capital improvements as Bi-State proceeds with expanding and refining its system."

"For each dollar of local funds collected, four are provided by federal programs. Buses ordered through the newly-announced award will replace vehicles, some of which have been in service for as long as 30 years, as well as provide additional new buses to serve our patrons."

"The new shelters are part of more than 1,200 to be located in the two-state area. Bi-State presently operates 141 lines in Missouri and Illinois and has a fleet of more than 900 buses."

Approval of the new grant brings to $44,483,862 the total of federal funds that Bi-State has succeeded in obtaining for St. Louis metropolitan area transit since 1973.

Youths being released almost automatically regardless of the steadily escalating severity of their criminal actions

An issue raised by a Madison County grand jury Sept. 24 is simply and profoundly meaningful to society: Is well-intentioned law punishment of juvenile offenders permitting and encouraging them to commit increasingly serious and violent crimes?

The subject is of immense importance in the Quad-Cities, some of six homicides this year. A double slaying is unsolved; in the other four murders, teenagers were charged. As the outgoing jury recommended, the study of the problem should be continued by the grand jury newly impaneled Sept. 27.

Text of the special report on juvenile crime is presented elsewhere on this page. It tells a tragic story. As the record of the record of 11 youths shows, the Illinois Department of Corrections' Juvenile Division repeatedly finds itself of direct custody of young offenders, dropping each "hot potato" as fast as it can. The question is whether this is done with reasonable prudence or whether release and parole have become so routine, so automatic, that dangerous predators are being turned loose without justification.

Juvenile "C" admitted 12 residential burglaries in 1974 and four armed robberies in 1975 but was released. Finally, for still another holdup, he was given a prison sentence.

Pleading guilty to murder as a juvenile, a case involving a gun and a crowbar, "D" gained his freedom on "authorized absence." He next was implicated in a burglary and was apprehended with a crowbar in his possession. He was paroled less than two years from the date of the murder (less than a year after the later crime).

Minor "H" was freed after deviate sexual assault and after battery and attempted robbery; he later was charged with theft.

The record of juvenile "I" includes residential burglary, attempted burglary, criminal damage to property, possession of stolen goods, forgery, illegal consumption of alcohol and burglary, in that order, but he still was placed on probation.

"J" was charged with five thefts, escape, attempted escape and two more escapes. "K" was arrested for committing at least three burglaries, on different occasions, despite arrests in between. In effect, there is no "lock" on our jailhouse doors.

Does a "leopard change his spots"? Undoubtedly, sometimes he does and rehabilitation is achieved. In the meantime, how often should juvenile officials gamble on a particular youth? Juvenile "B's" file contains 19 different notations.

The obvious message from the grand jury is that, too often, the Illinois state government is recklessly disregarding law-abiding people's safety by sending out into their midst a person who, common sense would indicate, cannot be trusted.

Excuses and apologies by parole authorities and the courts can never make up for the brutal murder of a loved one. The fact that some of the local victims had lived long and productive lives fails to alleviate the rage over their terrifyingly painful, pointless and probably preventable deaths.

Casual remarks from custody also is not in the best interest of the young law violators, in many instances, grand jurors believe.

"G" was paroled nine and a half months after committing murder by stabbing an individual with a knife. Seven months after being freed, he was shot to death while attacking a 73-year-old man.

This juvenile conceivably could have murdered and abandoned his lawless pattern if he had been imprisoned for a longer period than nine and a half months. No one, of course, will ever know now, because he is dead.

Young people — by the very nature of their age — cannot be held fully responsible for their actions, lawmakers decided long ago, and with considerable logic.

Still, a line must be drawn so that their supposed welfare is not the only aspect taken into account. The general public deserves more protection than it is getting. There can be no single, easy answer. The mobility of the American populace itself would negate procedural perfection if it ever was achieved by a community or county or state, especially when the offender can and does arrive without invitation or notice.

But improvement is a "must," and it behooves all citizens to do whatever they can, within ethical bounds, to help achieve it.

Larry never promised Jimmy a rose garden

WASHINGTON — Ron Nessen was touring the White House pressroom after his regular daily briefing, chatting with reporters who had a few more items to get cleared up.

One reporter, a veteran of three campaigns by incumbent presidents, suggested to Nessen that President Ford was being a bit heavy-handed in his use of the White House and its attendant press corps to wage his campaign against Jimmy Carter.

For example, the reporter said, would the President have laid on a full-blown ceremony in the Rose Garden to sign the relatively pedestrian Teton dam disaster relief bill had this not been a campaign season?

Well, countered an amused Nessen, would Jimmy Carter have performed his highly publicized draining of the fish pond this summer?

"I would President Ford, shuck back the reporter, at any other time have carried a newspaper to a presidential press conference to show off what Mr. Ford interpreted as an anti-Carter headline?

Well, asked Nessen, would the former governor of Georgia have played softball with reporters in Plains?

The answer is no, and everybody knows. But there nevertheless is a difference between a private citizen draining his fish pond and a President using the White House as a theatrical set and his minor official duties as opportunities for national television exposure.

Yet to attempt to define the dividing line is to bog down in semantics and hair-splitting that offer at least one easy conclusion: it may not really matter all that much.

But using the office of president as a campaign stage leaves the impression of this particular year — the first presidential campaign since the so-called Watergate reforms opened the door to the criticism that things really haven't changed.

Mr. Ford began the need for changing the national custom is not overly crucial to the restoration of public faith in political leaders. But certainly the present incumbent has an opportunity here to make a contribution, no matter how small.

In a press conference Sept. 8, staged on the White House lawn with the imposing south side of the Lincoln Memorial for the cameras whose position was determined by presidential aides.

"I decided a long time ago that the principal responsibility I had was that of being President of the United States, and I intend to carry out that responsibility."

Second, we have a campaign strategy. ... In effect, was throwing up his hands and saying: "What can I do? Someone's got to be president, and I'm the best at the moment. I've also been nominated by my party to campaign for victory in November. I'll do my best to slight either heavy responsibility."

What could a presidential candidate do? Quite simply, he could clearly separate the two activities.

For example, a president could sign child day-care legislation at his desk, not as Mr. Ford did dramatically before cameras in the Rose Garden, surrounded by Democratic and Congressional state, local and private officials affected by the law.

Then he could put on his candidate hat and appear before reporters to openly grind political mileage out of the simple act of signing a bill.

Then a presidential press conference on government property could be restricted to matters of state. Granted, these matters are at issue in the campaign but partisan politics can be screened out of presidential press conferences.

Mr. Ford's Sept. 8 blast at Carter for a "lack of compassion" on whatever was the issue of the day would have seemed more appropriate in a clearly political setting.

But then, would citizen-candidate hat and appear before reporters to openly grind political mileage out of the simple act of signing a bill.

Special report of the Madison County grand jury Sept. 24: The grand jury, having heard testimony and considered testimony on the question of juvenile crime in Madison County and the causes thereof, specifically finds as follows:

1. That the Madison County Council on Youth Services, Andrew Naleski, chairman, a group composed of social, law enforcement and correctional agencies, and individual citizens of this county have petitioned the state's attorney to investigate the activities, policies, facilities and programs of the Juvenile Division of the Department of Corrections in this county.

2. That there is a disregard and disrespect for the program and correctional possibilities of the Illinois Department of Corrections, Juvenile Division by the minors who are possible subjects of commitment to said department.

3. That Case "A," a juvenile, recent parolee from the Department of Corrections, Juvenile Division, had the following record before parole:

Testifying at a series of hearings held by Democratic state candidates, State Chamber spokesmen warned of pressing Illinois economic, governmental and educational issues which must be faced by the next state administration.

ISCC Legislative Department Manager W. Paul Neal Jr., Tax Department Manager William E. Stoew and Education Department Manager Robert M. Beckwith testified at hearings before the Illinois Democratic State Candidates Committee held at locations around the state.

Neal told the candidates that the need for new or increased General Fund taxes in the foreseeable future doesn't exist, and that a program of spending restraint and a cost-conscious administration are essential to avoiding demands for additional tax revenues.

Neal pointed out several areas in which cost-cutting could be achieved. "About 70 per cent of the General Fund budget is in grants-in-aid from federal and state agencies not under the direct control of the state administration," he said.

"The eligibility criteria, or lack of it, for these grants-in-aid need to be scrutinized closely."

"The possible savings which could be realized here are enormous."

The costs of government regulation borne by both government on the enforcement end and by the business community and private citizens in compliance is another area which needs attention.

"A special session of the legislature to do nothing but repeal these 'mandates' that are swelling our statute books would do more to restore confidence in government than a handle on who and what we're regulating, effectively end the cost of government and reveal the number of statutes which are conflicting or unused."

Neal also called for immediate attention to the plight of the state Road Fund, which "for all practical purposes is broke."

He urged the adoption of a zero-based state budget system, which would require all state agencies to justify the entire amount of their budget, and not just the increase requested over last year's appropriation.

Restoring vigor to the state's economy was cited by Stoew as the most pressing economic issue facing state government.

"Capital formation, or job creation, is proceeding at a very low growth rate, and must be changed radically to 11 per cent or 12 per cent per year."

"Public policy must begin to treat both labor force and capital force as equally necessary for sound economic progress," he said.

Stoew stated that both the size of the Illinois work force and the state's share of the U.S. personal income total have been declining.

"Illinois has slowed down in Illinois and has shifted to the South, the Southeast and the Southwest."

"These states show dramatic gains. Despite many attractive features of the Illinois business environment, we are net exporters of jobs."

He traced part of the cause of the state's slow growth rate to the burgeoning expansion of state government in recent years and the resulting

Commemorate Lindbergh's solo flight

An observance to mark the 50th anniversary of Charles A. Lindbergh's solo flight across the Atlantic will be held May 21 and 22, 1977, in the St. Louis area.

It will emphasize historic ties between St. Louis and Paris, where the pioneer aviator concluded his history-making flight.

Sen. Stuart Symington, who retired in January after representing Missouri for 24 years in the U.S. Senate and who served as the first secretary of the Air Force, will be the honorary chairman of the Lindbergh observance.

The recipient of the first "Spirit of St. Louis Aviation Award" will be announced at a formal reception and dinner on Saturday, May 21. The award, to be presented officially, will honor, for outstanding contributions to the field of aviation, individuals who personify the leadership and qualities of the late Charles A. Lindbergh.

There will be a number of aviation-related events, including an air show in the vicinity of the Gateway Arch featuring the armed services' flying teams, and other aerial demonstrations including balloon ascensions.

Plans call for special activities and displays in colleges, businesses and museums, including the Missouri Historical Society, which houses an extensive collection of Lindbergh's decorations and trophies and such passages as his flying suit. The colonel's son, Jon M. Lindbergh, serves on the board of the Society.

Initial plans for the observance were developed by a committee under the chairmanship of Leon Z. Seitzler, dean of Bi-State Parks College, Cahokia, which will also celebrate its 50th anniversary next year.

Art auction, exhibits Friday at Army base

The Granite City Officers' Wives Club will sponsor a Public Auction and Art Exhibition, starting at 6:30 p.m. Friday in the Officers' Open Mess at the Granite City Army Installation.

The auction will commence at 8 p.m. Cost of admittance will be $2.50 per person.

Mrs. Jane Meisinger, project chairman for the club, said the public is invited to inspect the exhibits, which include original oils, water colors and lithographs by well-known artists and artwork by younger craftsmen, beginning at 6:30 Friday.

Advance reservations and further information may be obtained by contacting: Mrs. Meisinger, at 451-9562, Mrs. Linda Woolfolk, club president.

Ranft named to economic development advisory panel

Michael J. Howlett, Democratic candidate for governor, has released a partial list of Illinois citizens participating with him in an advisory committee on economic development.

John A. Kennedy, a Winnetka businessman, president of James Electronics, Inc., is chairman of the committee. Donald "Pete" Atkins, of Shawneetown Regional Port Authority, is Downstate chairman.

Members include Carl A. Ranft, Tri-City Regional Port District general manager and secretary.

"This committee consists of representatives of business, industry, academia, world and consumers who have an interest in keeping Illinois' economy moving ahead," said Howlett.

"Staterwide economic success is like an athletic team; if everyone does not pull together, work together and plan together, we lose."

"In this great country, we have active and determined economic competition between different states and areas."

Illinois has been so successful over the last 150 years that we tend to lean on our oars and glide.

"We cannot continue this attitude or we will slip farther and farther behind. We now have 300,000 people out of work and unable to find jobs. We must find ways to create job opportunities for them in the private sector."

Meetings already have been held in the Chicago area and will be expanded throughout the state. With the help of the committee, Howlett will present programs to voters that will help Illinois prosper and grow," he said.

"An important part of the solution to the state's fiscal problem is an expanding economy," Howlett concluded.

Address changes delay veterans dividend pay

Many veterans retired from military service and paying premiums for U.S. Government Life Insurance (USGLI) or National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) from monthly retirement checks may be missing annual dividend checks, the Veterans Administration has reported.

The VA insurance center at Philadelphia reported that several thousand military retirees who each month pay insurance premiums by allotment from their retired pay.

In some cases the monthly deduction becomes so routine the veterans fail to notify the VA when there is a change of address. This is particularly true, a spokesman said, when a retiree's check is sent to a banking institution.

Annual dividends paid on USGLI and NSLI policies often result in some checks being returned to the VA for lack of a current address, the spokesman said.

Military retirees paying GI insurance premiums by allotment should send changes of address, with policy number to the Veterans Administration center, P. O. Box 8079, Philadelphia, Pa. 19101, the spokesman said.

at 451-7735, or Mrs. Allen Duggan, at (314) 878-1322.

Collier Art Corp. of California is handling the auction, Mrs. Meisinger said. The company is recognized nationally as a promoter of younger artists. Many pieces to be shown here, however, are the work of established artists, she noted.

Each piece is framed and the frame is included in the cost of the artwork, the chairman said. Mrs. Sharon Sandall is serving as co-chairman of arrangements.

A piece of artwork will be presented as a gift during the auction, the club spokesman said.

Proceeds from the event will be used to supplement the officers' wives club's charitable projects and other programs, Mrs. Meisinger said.

1977 CHEVROLET CAPRICE debuts as an all-new, full-size car closely tuned to changing consumer life styles and matched with U. S. goals of conserving fuel and natural resources. The new Chevrolets have been placed on display at Mathews Chevrolet, Niedringhaus and Madison Avenues, Chuck Flagg, sales manager, reports. Ushering in a new era of Chevrolets, the 1977 Caprice coupes, sedans and station wagons boast more fuel efficiency and safety effectiveness. Six-cylinder and V8 engines are offered on the Caprice.

Fruit planting in fall is hazardous

Area Garden Advisor

Fall planting of fruits is a questionable practice in Southwestern Illinois. Good nursery stock isn't available till late, and then they are exposed to winter weather and pests.

Transplanting directly from one location to another isn't bad if it's done in early to mid-October. But the delays that occur during harvesting and marketing nursery trees usually makes planting rather late.

Advantages of fall planting are good soil conditions, plenty of time, and maybe better growth next spring. Disadvantages of planting this fall are that all varieties aren't available from nurseries, and the young plant is exposed to weather variables and pests.

With spring planting, the nursery stock has been in storage protected from these problems.

If fall planting is done, it's best to plant as soon as stock can be obtained. This will give the roots a chance to become established before it freezes.

However, this may not be until late October or early November because the nursery must wait for frost drop and best digging time.

Planting at this time won't permit much root growth, so a heavy layer of straw or other organic mulch over the root zone of the planted trees is suggested. Strawberries and brambles should be covered completely during the winter to prevent heaving.

Car hits tavern

Mrs. Kathleen Lancaster, 46, of 2225 Delmar Ave., was injured when her car drove into the side of Good Neighbor Joe's Tavern, Niedringhaus Avenue at Chestnut Street, at 12:40 a.m. Tuesday.

The auto knocked the side door off and damaged the east side of the building. Police found the driver unconscious in the auto and were not able to determine what had caused the car to go out of control.

Mrs. Lancaster was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was admitted and with cuts to the inside of a lip art to her head. X-rays were taken.

GCHS South Homecoming extends through Friday

The final performance of the Granite City High School South Homecoming play "The Miracle Worker" will be presented at 8 p.m. today in the school auditorium.

Following the play the South Queen and her court will be presented.

Activities Friday will begin at 7:15 a.m. in the school auditorium with a soccer pep rally, in preparation for the 3:30 p.m. Friday game when South meets North on the South soccer field.

At 5:30 p.m. Friday the girls' field hockey team will host Okawville.

The Football Warriors will play the Cahokia Comanches at 8 p.m. on the South field.

A parade will be held at 2:15 p.m., with student organizations entering floats. The parade will begin at the football field and will proceed on Fehling Road to Nameoki Road and then to Madison Avenue, making a circle back to the school.

The week's activities are being coordinated by the Red Peppers and the South Student Council.

Attend annual ceramic show

Copper's Ceramics, a local supplier for the hobby in Granite City, participated in the 12th annual Greater St. Louis Ceramic Show. Several local persons entered the competition.

Ribbons were won by Louise Meador, Carla Copper and Jeri Copper. Karen Naas won a blue ribbon rosette and a Freddie, the highest award given to the hobbyist. The Freddie is named after Fred De Sieder who was a pioneer in the hobby ceramic field.

Copper's Ceramics specializes in design on clay and features a complete line of ceramic supplies for the ceramic hobbyist. Mrs. Copper estimates she has introduced over 500 Granite City residents to ceramics in the last eight years.

Ceramics is a popular hobby in which clay shapes cast from molds are decorated with a variety of finishes after the clay is fired to a high temperature in a kiln.

The Copper shop is open daily from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Classes are held Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Former GC woman named professor

Mrs. Weldon (Watson) Thomas, a former Granite City resident, has been appointed professor in the department of nursing at Hartnell College in Salinas, Calif.

She is a 1959 graduate of Granite City High School and received a bachelor of science degree in nursing in 1968 while living in Shreveport, La., where she moved with her son and daughter in 1964 after the death of her husband, Larry Schoeber.

Following her remarriage, Mrs. Thomas and her family moved to San Jose, Calif., where she earned a master of science degree in 1967.

For several years, the former Granite City taught in a private school of nursing at San Jose and in community colleges in that area. She recently joined the faculty of Hartnell College, where she was designated professor.

Mrs. Thomas now makes her home in Capitola, Calif. She has traveled extensively, including a trip around the world and a visit to Hawaii.

The new professor is a daughter of the late Mrs. Deena Watson of Granite City, who died last year, and a sister of Ralph, Ronald and Raymond Watson, all local residents.

'Nurses Tea' set for Oct. 17

The annual Nurses Tea, sponsored by the Women of the Moose Chapter 247, will be held on Oct. 17, according to Mrs. Pam Dayton, hospital chairman, who made the announcement at a chapter meeting last week.

Proceeds from the project will be used to furnish a scholarship for a girl who wishes to enter nursing training. Tickets for the affair may be bought from members of the committee, Mrs. Dayton added.

Senior Regent Vernie Von Nida presided at the session and welcomed Mrs. Nellie Schlemmer and Mrs. Edna Smith guests from Edwardsville Chapter 82.

A practice was held during the evening followed by an award to Ruth Stover, junior graduate regent, who will receive her "green cap" later this year.

Mrs. Von Nida announced the convention this year will be held Oct. 8, 9 and 10 in Chicago at the Hyatt-Regency Hotel.

There were three new members and five home-chapter members approved and it was reported the quota for home chapter members has been reached this year and no more will be accepted at the present time.

The next Academy of Friendship meeting is scheduled for Tuesday and they will hold a fund raising program on Nov. 14, it was noted.

Mrs. Velma Finney gave a report on the Charity Days, both and offered appreciation to those who helped at the project and to members who assisted at the picnic and Legion Day.

Refreshments were served to 48 members followed by several games with prizes awarded to the winners.

Chapter KU opens new club year

To open its fall and winter season, Chapter KU of the PEO Sisterhood met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. F. T. Mitchell, 2010 Amos Ave.

Experiences encountered during the summer months were related by the members to provide the program. Mrs. George A. Coolidge was in charge.

Mrs. Elmer G. Gruen, president, conducted the business session and announced the graduation of Miss Jo Ann Kamibich, the chapter's protégée, from Cottey College, Jackson, Mo.

The local young woman is now pursuing a degree in social science, Mrs. Gruen advised.

Other meetings and programs arranged for the coming autumn months were reviewed.

A dessert course was served by the hostess to 19 members.

Chapter KU will next meet Oct. 12 at the home of Mrs. G. G. Walters, 2668 State St. Mrs. Mitchell will present the program.

58'ers change meeting date

Members of the 58'er 4-H Club have selected the first Thursday of each month as the regular meeting date for the organization, according to the leaders Mrs. Joanna Spencer and Mrs. Marsha Bushue.

The meetings will be conducted at St. John United Church of Christ, 2901 Nameoki Road, with the next session set for 7 p.m. Oct. 7.

Party honors Michael York

Michael York was honored on his 14th birthday at a party this week given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Larry York, at their home, 2500 Morrison Road.

Birthday cake and ice cream were served the guests.

Among those present were the honoree's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Adams and daughter, Jackie, and Mr. and Mrs. James York.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Gaines and Todd and Tammy of Edwardsville, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Moneymaker and David and Betty York, the guest of honor's brother.

The engagement of Miss Billie Gail Penrod and Dennis Orne, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Orne of St. Charles, Mo., is being announced by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Penrod, 2338 East 24th St.

Plans are being completed by the betrothed couple and their families for a wedding on Feb. 19 to take place at the Bethel Freewill Baptist Chapel in South Roxana.

Miss Penrod is a graduate of Granite City High School South and is employed at the Venture Store at Northwest Plaza, St. Louis.

Hope Lutheran Fall Festival

The third annual Fall Festival at Hope Lutheran Church, 3715 Wabash Ave. is set for Oct. 3, featuring a barbecue pork steak dinner to be served from 4:47 p.m. to 8:22 p.m. Children's portions will be available for $1.50. Games for children and adults are planned and cartoons will be shown, the Rev. David Fielding reports.

The annual Mission Sunday will be observed in the Sunday morning services at 8 and 10:30 a.m. Special prayers and an offering designated for the mission is being announced. Children in the 9 a.m. Sunday School each will receive a ticket good for one free orange drink at the afternoon barbecue.

The public is welcome to worship and also join in the pork steak dinner, the pastor added.

Quilting is chapter topic

A program on the art of quilting was presented by Mrs. Sandy Aschcraft for members of Pi Eta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority at a meeting held last week.

Mrs. Mary Ruth Snelson hosted the session with Mrs. Judy Onesty, president, presiding.

The group elected Mrs. Barbara Kennerly to represent the chapter as "sweetheart" at the Valentine dance in February sponsored by the sorority City Council.

Others attending were Jerry Turner, Betty Beck, Janita Graham, and Donna Velding. Mrs. Beck will host the Oct. 6 meeting.

Moose women hosts 'kidnap breakfast'

A "kidnap breakfast" was held during the weekend at the Moose Lodge hosted by the publicly committee of the Women of the Moose.

The women were escorted from their homes at 6 a.m. by members of the host committee, to the hall. They were served breakfast of bacon, eggs, fried potatoes, gravy and biscuits.

There were 35 present for the breakfast and social hour which included "palm reading" by Mrs. Margaret Feeney and various games. Prizes were awarded to Veronica Wilson, Debbie Chastain, Shirley Schmid and Vernie Von Nida.

Notes were left in each home informing the husbands they could ransom their wives for $2 and according to the Chapter Senior Regent Mrs. Vernie Von Nida, all members were rescued.

The Madison Senior "O" Club met Monday evening to complete final plans for a fall dance to be held on Friday, Oct. 22 at the Croatian Home in Madison.

They announced The Terry Duke Quintet will play from 9 p.m. to midnight. Donation is $2 in advance and $2.50 at the door.

President Mary Fryntzko said an election of new officers will be held at the November meeting.

A report was also given by the delegates and alternates who attended the 50th National FRCO Convention held in New York City on Sept. 2 through Sept. 6.

MISS ROBYN HENDRICKS, fiancée of Kevin Michael Brennan. The engagement and plans for a Nov. 13 wedding are being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hendricks of O'Fallon, Ill., formerly of Granite City.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES P. SMITH whose wedding took place at the First United Methodist Church in Madison. The bride is the former Miss Carol Lynn Creighton, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Creighton, 3148 Carlson Ave.

Carol L. Creighton and James P. Smith are wed

The wedding of Miss Carol Lynn Creighton of Granite City and James Patrick Smith of Decatur, was solemnized on Sept. 18 at the First United Methodist Church, Madison.

Bouquets of carnations and baby's breath on the altar and white wicker candle holders on the pews provided the setting for the double ring ceremony performed at 4 p.m. by the Rev. John Smith and the Rev. J. Michael Smith, father and brother of the groom and the Rev. Ed Weston, host pastor.

Organist the Rev. Donald Haworth accompanied Paul L. Mabry as he sang, "The Wedding Song," "One Hand, One Heart" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Creighton, 3148 Carlson Ave. Parents of the groom are the Rev. and Mrs. John Smith of South Elgin, Ill. Escorted to the altar by her father, the former Miss Creighton, wore a full length organza over taffeta A-line style gown.

Venise lace motifs etched with pearls accented the molded bodice, created with a sheer yoke and high lace collar and also edged the short flared sleeves.

The decorative trim was repeated on the skirt which was encircled with a band of lace at the hemline.

Venise lace rosettes and seed pearls formed the halo headpiece to hold in place her cathedral length veil bordered with a lace trim. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, and baby's breath.

Pink polyester formal length gown designed with sleeveless Empire bodices and A-line skirts complemented matching jackets trimmed with maroon velvet on the cuffs and lapels were worn by the bridal attendants.

They held colonial bouquets of pink and red roses intermingled with baby's breath.

Guests were registered by Ellen Fogle and Denise Creighton at a reception held in Wesley Hall at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

The couple is now residing in Decatur, Ill. following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, N.Y.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Creighton, selected a light blue sleeveless polyester dress worn with a long chiffon coat enhanced with beading at the neckline and on the cuffs of the long sleeves.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the groom, was attired in a long mint green knit gown fashioned with bell sleeves and trimmed with a white daisy motif.

John Steven Smith attended his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Peter Shaeffer and David Shetter.

Seating the guests were Jeffrey Koch, Jay Smith, the groom's brother and Gary Haworth, a cousin of the groom.

The former Miss Creighton, graduated from Granite City High School and was employed at Bensen's Bank, St. Louis. A graduate of Sterling (Ill.) High School, the groom is associated with Odel-Haworth Insurance Agency in Decatur.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Workman, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Folsom, Miss Lloyd Block, Miss Sandy Bardel and Martin Hoak of Sterling, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Donald Haworth and children Phillip and Sarah of Macinaw, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tedrick and son Greg of Carpenter, Ill., Mrs. Leonard Smith Hartford, Ill., the Rev. J. Michael Smith of Harper's Ferry, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. Ed White of Bay View, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Haworth and sons, Gary and Timothy and daughter Pamela, Mr. and Mrs. David Largent, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gibson and son Jeffrey and Mrs. Nettie Haworth of Decatur, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Creighton and daughter Denise, Mrs. Donald Wren and son Shannon, Mrs. Louis Ervin and sons, Louis II and Gregory of Cape Girardeau, Mo.

ENGAGED, Miss Billie Gail Penrod and Dennis Orne whose engagement and plans for a Feb. 19 wedding are being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Penrod, 2338 East 24th St.

Sweet Adelines plan part in international program

"Share a Song and Smile with Sweet Adelines" will be the theme when more than 27,000 women throughout the United States, Canada, Panama Canal Zone, England and the Virgin Islands will "share a song" with hospital patients, senior citizens, shoppers, school children and civic groups in an international program beginning today and continuing through Oct. 7.

The Collinsville chapter of Sweet Adelines which includes Quad-City area members, one of the more than 600 choruses in the international organization, will join in the celebration of the annual event when it entertains residents of Brauer Home in Collinsville on Wednesday evening, Oct. 6.

Under the direction of George Holtzcher, the chorus will sing selections from their Biennial repertoire, including songs from the Roaring Twenties and ragtime-vaudeville eras, as well as favorite modern pop tunes.

The chapter's popular quartets, Note-a-Belle Arrangement and Gateway Sounds, will be featured.

Additional Sweet Adelines "service through music" includes the USO sponsored tour of nine quartets through Southeast Asia and Vietnam, USO-Sweet Adelines Stateside Hospital Tours, and a program of civic involvement which, in cooperation with charity, produces benefit shows. It is through participation of this sort that Sweet Adelines hope to fulfill the title of their motto song, Harmonize the World, according to Miss Jean Schiller of the Collinsville Chapter.

Civic, fraternal and charitable organizations who would be interested in having the local group entertain at one of their functions may call the booking chairman, Ethel McCann of Granite City, at 931-3215.

Louise Blew, president of the chapter, urged women in the area to contact Membership Chairman Diane Ohlendorf of Mascoutah at 566-8683, if interested in learning more about the organization. The chorus meets every Wednesday evening at 7:45 p.m. at the Collinsville Building & Loan Association, Collinsville.

Harmony Class meets at church

The Harmony Class met in the Youth Center at the Niedringhaus United Methodist Church with Mrs. Leona Cartwright and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Paddock and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Potillo as hosts.

Raymond Dix, president, was presiding and Harold Lynn opened the meeting with prayer.

Paul Martin gave the devotional lesson entitled "Highways of Holiness."

Refreshments were served in the Wesley Hall dining room to the following members: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reimers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stutch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Youngs, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Huber, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dix, Mr. and Mrs. John Lerch, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Prohardt, Mrs. Golda Boyle, Mrs. Kathryn Richardson.

TOTAL SATISFACTION GUARANTEE

Everything you buy at Kroger is guaranteed for your total satisfaction regardless of manufacturer. If you are not satisfied, Kroger will replace your item with the same brand or a comparable brand or refund your money.

We also guarantee that we will do everything in our power to have ample supplies of all advertised specials on our shelves when you shop for them. If, due to conditions beyond our control, we run out of an advertised special, we will substitute the same item in a comparable brand (when such an item is available) reflecting the same savings or, if you prefer, give you a "RAIN CHECK" which entitles you to the same advertised special at the same special price any time within 30 days.

Why Walgreen Brands are Your Best Buys!

Wal We insist on finest ingredients, finest formulas...
we insist on strictest quality controls. We not only sell for less...
we sell you the VERY BEST for LESS.

Wal We make them in our modern laboratories, (not just label them Walgreens; we make them)... and that eliminates middle-man costs so our price can be LOWER.
